

Contents

Preface IX

List of Figures XII

Biographical Information XV

1 Introduction 1

The Dance of Paul's 1

Iconographic Representations of Death 5

The Dance of Death and the Popular Imagination 15

The Role of Death in Life 20

A Topical and Adaptable Motif 33

The Origins of the Dance of Death 41

The Danse Macabre Mural in Paris 48

Further Dissemination of the Danse Macabre 57

Manuscripts and Printed Texts 61

Lydgate's Dance of Death: Manuscripts 63

Manuscripts of the A-Group 63

Manuscripts of the B-Group 66

Lydgate's Dance of Death: Printed Texts 68

The French Danse Macabre: Manuscripts 69

Guy Marchant's Editions of 1485 and 1486 72

Editorial Principles 75

PART 1

John Lydgate's Dance of Death

2 Edited Texts: John Lydgate's Dance of Death 79

Oxford, Bodleian Library, MS. Selden Supra 53 79

London, British Library, MS. Lansdowne 699 100

Oxford, Bodleian Library, Douce BB.53 (Fakes edition) 118

3 Textual Notes: John Lydgate's Dance of Death 124

A-Group (Bodleian Library, MS. Selden Supra 53) 124

B-Group (British Library, MS. Lansdowne 699) 134

Textual Notes to Bodleian Library, Douce BB.53 144

- 4 Critical Notes: John Lydgate's Dance of Death 145
 Stanzas Only in the B-Group, Following the Order of MS. Lansdowne
 699 165

PART 2

The French Danse Macabre

- 5 Edited Text and Translation: Guy Marchant's Danse Macabre (1485) 171
- 6 Woodcuts and Comments: Guy Marchant's Danse Macabre (1485) 194
- 7 Textual Notes: Guy Marchant's Danse Macabre (1485) 220
- 8 Critical Notes: Guy Marchant's Danse Macabre (1485) 225

Appendix: Transcription of the "Chambéry roll," a French Dramatized
 Danse Macabre Text of the Late Fourteenth or Early Fifteenth Century (Collection Claudius Bouvier, Archives départementales de Savoie, Chambéry, France) 241

Bibliography 250

Glossary 267

Index 274