

Contents

Preface — V

Christine Bell

Material Culture: Shagreen in the Bābur-nāma — 1

Luvsandorj Bold

Polysemy of the Word “Tānri” — 19

Alicia Campi

Return of State-Supported Buddhist Rituals to Modern Mongolia — 29

Oliver Corff

Disasters — Acts of Heaven? Records of Disasters in the Draft History of Qing — 39

Kuljamal Tologonovna Djamankulova

Totemism of the peoples of Altai origin — 59

Kao Hsiang-Tai

From the Sanskrit-Tibetan transliteration system to the Mongolian and the Manchu ali-gali script — 65

Barbara Kellner-Heinkele

Moghul Tribal Traditions in Mirza Haydar Dughlat’s Tarikh-i Rashidi — 75

Yuanchu Ruby Lam

Two Primary Accounts on the Sino-Mongolian Negotiation (1449–1450) — 93

Liu Ge

On the Buddhist Feature of the Uighur Pintung Documents — 101

Olga Lundysheva and Dieter Maue

An Old Uyghur text fragment related to the Tocharian B “History of Kuchean kings” — 111

Kyoko Maezono

Shamanism in the Secret History and the Kojiki — 125

Junko Miyawaki-Okada

Tibetan Buddhism and Nomadic Mongolian Regimes — 143

Irina Nevskaya

Old Turkic runic inscriptions in the Altai Mountains and their reflection of traditional beliefs and religion of the ancient Turkic population: the case of the inscription Kuttuu-I — 153

Rodica Pop

State and Church in Mongolia, a multidimensional relationship — 161

A. С. Раимкулова

Роль мечетей Кыргызстана в религиозном воспитании молодежи — 171

N. Shaimerdinova

Tengrism in the life of Turkic peoples — 177

Saule Tazhibayeva and Irina Nevskaya

“Meskhetian Turks”: an analysis of their ethnic self-identification and religion based on a sociolinguistic survey in 2013–2018 — 183

Hartmut Walravens

Polyglot Names of Imperial Horses and Dogs — 199

Hülya Yıldız

A New Analysis of the Kalbak Taş XV (A-33) Inscription — 223