

Table of Contents

Chapter 1

Introduction	13
---------------------	----

Chapter 2

History of fire insurance law	17
--------------------------------------	----

A. Introduction	17
I. Emergence of fire insurance in the Dutch Republic	17
II. Spread of fire insurance in the Dutch Republic	18
III. Early traces of Dutch fire insurance initiatives elsewhere	19
IV. Dealing with fire and fire damage in Dutch daily life	20
1. Local fire prevention measures	20
2. Local firefighting measures	21
3. Financial options in the event of fire	22
B. Premium fire insurance contracts	23
I. Inconclusive insurance contract in 1646	23
II. Private partnership with insurance clauses in 1663	26
III. Influence of marine insurance?	29
C. Mutual fire insurance contracts	31
I. Origin and development	31
1. Hamburger Feuerkontrakte as an unlikely origin	31
2. Guilds as an unlikely origin	33
3. An independent development in various stages	35
4. Further spread of mutual fire insurance contracts	38
a) Amsterdam millers' contract of 1740	38
b) Amsterdam sugar refiners' contract of 1755	41
c) Groningen hull millers' contracts of 1743 and 1784	45
5. Legal analysis of the mutual fire insurance contracts	52
II. In detail: the Zaanstreek contracts between 1663 and 1783	55
1. Parties to the contract	55
a) Inclusion of new participants	56

b) Provisions regarding the position of heirs	58
c) Exclusion of current contracting parties	59
2. Administration of an insurance scheme	61
a) Introduction of supervisors	61
b) Number of supervisors and circulation schemes	63
c) Annual meetings	64
3. Termination of an insurance scheme	65
4. Requirement of an insurable interest	68
5. Objects of risk	70
a) Commodities, or movable property	70
b) Mills, or immovable property	71
c) Sale of an object of risk	73
d) Perished and partly damaged objects of risk	74
6. Risk insured against	76
a) Description of the risk insured against	76
b) Exception in the case of war	77
c) Exception in the case of hazardous and flammable substances	79
d) Fire prevention measures to limit the risk	79
7. The principle of indemnity and indemnification	82
a) Compulsory under-insurance and the principle of mutuality	82
b) Registration of sums insured	84
c) Prohibition of double insurance	86
d) Indemnification procedures for partial damage and total loss	87
8. Conflict resolution	90
9. Contract funds	91
a) A primitive contract fund of 1720	92
b) A refined contract fund of 1739	93
c) Legal analysis of contract funds and the investment in public bonds	93
III. Influence of marine insurance?	95
1. An unlikely influence	95
2. Excursus: mutual whaling insurance in the Zaanstreek	96
a) Conceptual influence during the seventeenth century	96
b) Developments of the eighteenth century	97
D. Rotterdam Insurance Company of 1720	100
I. Introduction	100
1. Emergence of insurance companies and premium fire insurance	100
2. Introduction of fire insurance by the Rotterdam Insurance Company	101
3. Reception of fire insurance by the public	103

II. The company's fire insurance policy	106
1. Drafting the policy	106
2. Requirement of an insurable interest	107
3. Parties to the contract and signing of the policy	108
4. Duration and renewal of an insurance contract	109
5. Objects of risk	111
a) Lists of insurable objects	111
b) Further provisions regarding objects of risk	112
6. Risk insured against	113
7. The principle of indemnity and indemnification	114
a) Valued policy	115
b) Under-insurance	115
c) A simple indemnification procedure	116
8. Conflict resolution	117
III. Influence of marine insurance?	118
E. Amsterdam insurance legislation on fire insurance	120
I. Introduction	120
II. Amsterdam insurance keur of 1744	121
1. Insuring "to whom it may concern" and the insurable interest	122
2. Duration of the insurance contract	122
3. Objects of risk	123
4. Risk insured against	124
5. The principle of indemnity and indemnification	125
a) Valued policy	125
b) Indemnification procedure for total loss and partial damage	127
6. Conflict resolution	128
III. The Amsterdam model fire insurance policy in practice	129
1. Objects of risk	130
2. Risks insured against	130
3. Bearer policy and the indemnification procedure	131
4. Conflict resolution	133
IV. Amsterdam insurance keur of 1775	134
1. Objects of risk	135
2. Risk insured against	136
3. Indemnification procedure	136
V. Influence of marine insurance?	138

F. Various developments from the 1770s onwards	141
I. Emergence of insurance companies	141
1. A fifty-year gap	141
2. Premium fire insurance companies	143
3. Mutual fire insurance companies	143
a) Mutual fire insurance scheme in Schiedam	144
b) Mutual fire insurance scheme in Rotterdam	146
c) Mutual fire insurance scheme in Kampen	148
II. Emergence of a standard fire insurance policy in Rotterdam	148
III. Excursus: further development of the Rotterdam Insurance Company of 1720's fire insurance policy	150
1. The company's fire insurance policy of 1795	151
2. The company's fire insurance policy of 1813	152
3. The company's fire insurance policies of 1814 and 1820	153
IV. Influence of marine insurance?	154

Chapter 3

History of life insurance law	156
A. Introduction	156
I. Development of premium life insurance	156
II. Other forms of life insurance	157
1. Life annuities and tontines	157
2. Mutual aid schemes	159
3. Widow funds, benefice societies and burial funds	160
B. On the prohibition of life insurance	162
I. Original prohibition of life insurance in 1571	162
1. Placcaat of 20 January 1571	162
2. Possible origin of the prohibition of life insurance	163
3. Requirement of an insurable interest	165
4. Excursus: legal characteristics of the life insurance practice in the 1560s in Antwerp	167
II. Prohibition of life insurance in 1598, 1600 and 1604	167
1. Amsterdam insurance keur of 1598	168
2. Middelburg insurance keur of 1600	168
3. Rotterdam insurance keur of 1604	169

III. Prohibition of life insurance during the long eighteenth century	169
1. Practice and regulation of ransom insurance	170
2. Ransom insurance and the prohibition of life insurance	171
IV. Interpretation of the prohibition of life insurance in Roman-Dutch legal literature	172
1. Legal scope of the placcaat of 1571 in the Dutch Republic	173
2. Analogy with the	175
a) ... Antwerp Impressae of 1582	175
b) ... Frisian Landsordonnantie of 1723	176
c) ... Italian life insurance practice as portrayed by Roccus	177
d) ... Hamburg insurance legislation of 1731	178
3. Requirement of statutory law	178
V. Influence of marine insurance?	179
C. Instances of short-term life insurance policies	180
I. Short-term life insurance policy of 1676	181
1. Parties to the contract	181
2. Lives insured	181
3. Risk insured against	183
4. Indemnification procedure	184
5. Renunciation of the prohibition of life insurance	185
6. Recovery of the premium	186
7. Proper life insurance?	187
II. Short-term life insurance policy of 1712	188
1. Parties to the contract	189
2. Life insured	189
3. Risk insured against	190
4. Indemnification procedure	190
5. Renunciation of the prohibition of life insurance	191
6. Proper life insurance?	192
III. Influence of marine insurance?	193
D. The Dutch Life Insurance Company of 1807	194
I. Introduction	194
1. Establishment of the Dutch Life Insurance Company	194
2. Foreign influences?	195
II. The company's life insurance policy	196
1. Parties to the contract	196
2. Duration of the insurance contract and the premium	197

3. Life insured	198
4. Warranties	199
a) Requirement of warranties	199
b) Warranties of age and otherwise	199
c) Warranty of health	200
d) From 1822: joint warranty of age and health	201
e) Warranty of proof of interest	203
f) Rescission of insurance contract and forfeiture of premium	205
5. Risk insured against	206
6. Indemnification procedure	207
7. Conflict resolution	208
III. Influence of marine insurance?	208
 Chapter 4
Conclusion	210
 Appendices
List of archival sources	219
Bibliography	221
Index	231