7	In Memoriam: William S. Huff (1927–2021) From HfG Ulm to Louis Kahn's Design Office From Symmetry to Parquet Deformations with Temporality and Flow Dénés Nagy
15	Introduction Werner Van Hoeydonck Eva Sommeregger

Research Perspectives

23	Parquet Deformations A Subtle, Intricate Art Form Douglas R. Hofstadter
39	Past and Future of William Huff's Parquet Deformations Werner Van Hoeydonck
65	Grundlehre at the HfG —A Focus on “Visuelle Grammatik” William S. Huff
91	Geometry of Structures and Its Philosophical Aesthetic Background Cornelie Leopold
109	The Tiles, They Are a-Changin’ Craig S. Kaplan
127	Parametric Modeling of Parquet Deformations: A Novel Method for Design and Analysis Tuğrul Yazar
143	Pattern Manipulation through Hinged Tessellations Jay Bonner
163	Parakeet3D: Algorithmic Re-Envisioning of Geometrical Pattern Morphogenesis Esmail Mottaghi Arman Khalil Beigi Khameneh

Teaching Perspectives

175	Presenting the Experiments’ Outcomes Editor's note
177	The Tiling and the Whole Christian Kern
183	3D Parquet Deformation Exercise 1: 2D Parquets, 2D Parquet Deformation 1. Transformation of the Basic Element 2. Continuous Deformation 3. Deformation of the Basic Structure Exercise 2: 3D Parquets, 3D Parquet Deformation Exercise 3: Design Concept Exercise 4: Presentation Model
253	Cellular Space Sequences Exercise 1: Figure Ground Exercise 2: Solid and Void Exercise 3: Composition and Design Exercise 4: Presentation Model
