

PROLOGUE

14 | A long way to an even longer trail

KANCHENJUNGA

22 | The Himalaya obeys its own laws – and seasons know no rules

44 | INTERVIEW Yankila Sherpa “We are the forgotten people of the east”

MAKALU BARUN

48 | Holy seeds, the lowest point and the first foreigner in twelve days

SOLUKHUMBU

62 | Caught between the power of the mountains and money

SOLUKHUMBU – ROLWALING

82 | From thin air and icy mountains peaks to the depths of everyday Nepalese life

KATHMANDU

98 | A new journey begins – shaped by memories and realities

LANGTANG

110 | Back to the trail: The grimmer sides of Nepal

130 | INTERVIEW Fidel Devkota Yaks are disappearing, but mosquitoes are coming

HELAMBU

136 | Where faith moves mountains, but China changes entire landscapes

MANASLU

150 | Climate change is melting the glaciers - only the Dalai Lama is warming hearts

ANNAPURNA

168 | A money-spinner fights to retain its former glory

UPPER MUSTANG

180 | It is now or never! For modern times are threatening an old kingdom

202 | INTERVIEW Raju Bista Less zoo – more money

UPPER DOLPO

206 | Where yaks mean everything and the fight for survival is part of everyday life

226 | INTERVIEW Pemma Wangchen New wealth increases existing problems

LOWER DOLPO

228 | Forgotten, but unforgettable!

THE FAR WEST

238 | Where poverty dominates everyday life, but hospitality conquers hearts

252 | INTERVIEW Robin Boustead “From an old spinning plan to a new adventure with use-by date”

EPILOGUE – TIBET

256 | Pursued and without homeland – but continuing unbroken

APPENDIX

266 | Daily stages The Great Himalaya Trail

274 | Good to know before the first step

283 | Numbers & Facts & Details