

Contents

List of Illustrations	ix
FOREWORD (by Don Niles)	xiii
PROLOGUE: THE SOLO SONG TO THE FLYING FOX	1
INTRODUCTION	5
What's the Point?	5
Doing Fieldwork: Collecting and Translating Songs	15
Sepik Research	25
Copyright and the Voyager Spacecraft	31
1 AN AMPHIBIOUS WORLD	37
Floating Grass Islands	37
The Village of Kandingei in 1972-1973	46
Primal Times in a Still Unstable World	58
2 PRIMAL JOURNEYS	69
The Journey of the Primal Ancestor Mbelikubumeli	69
Zooming Out: Songs and Tales, Landscapes and Places	83
Journeys along the Knotted Cords	95
Recollections and Constructions of History of the Middle Sepik in Papua New Guinea (by Markus Schindlbeck)	108
3 THE SONG TO THE FLYING FOX	129
The Journey of the Primal Ancestor Wolindambwi	129
The Song to the Flying Fox – A Nightly Performance	140

4	THE BIRTH OF THE HUMAN SOCIAL ORDER	239
	The Journey of the Primal Ancestor Kwokundemi	239
	The Primal Cast	247
	The Sea Eagle Myth and the Killing of the Mother	262
	The Social Structure: Moieties, Clans and Age Groups	270
5	BECOMING A PERSON	277
	The Journey of the Primal Ancestor Njaranguremeli	277
	Initiation and its Three Steps	287
	The Death and the Embryonic Growth	298
	The Rebirth as a Male and Composite Person	320
	On the Nyaura Concept of the Person and Healing in a Context of Religious Change (by Christiane Falck)	337
6	FROM NAMES TO PERSONAL IDENTITY	361
	The Journey of the Primal Ancestor Moingawimeli	361
	Names or the Annulment of Time	367
	Ownership and Transmission	377
	The Names from the Solo Song to the Flying Fox	382
	A Long Debate: To Whom does 'Malembe' and 'Ariondumeimbi' Belong?	396
7	HOW TO REMEMBER	423
	The Journey of the Primal Ancestor Mendigumbange	423
	Landscape as Primeval Space	431
	Neural Networks and the Connectionism	434
	The Emplacement or the Most Basic Medium of Mnemonic	443
	Dichotomising as Another Mnemonic	447
	Two Sections and Six Rules	452
	Mariuamange – A Study in Music Cognition on Ceremonial Flute Music at the Middle Sepik (by Raymond Ammann)	457
	Learning, Memorizing, Remembering (by Hans J. Markowitsch, Angelica Staniloiu and Marie M.P. Vandekerckhove)	472
	A Cultural Model in a Cognitive Approach	490

AFTERWORD	499
The Journeys of the Primal Ancestors Ngaanmbange, Weimaligumbange, Wolindambwi and Moingawimeli	499
EPILOGUE: THE SOLO SONG TO THE FLYING FOX	505
Appendices	517
Appendix 1. Different Forms of sagi Performances	517
Appendix 2. Villages and Places Visited	521
Appendix 3. The Primal Cast of Clan Groups	525
Appendix 4. Names and Texts during the Initiation	528
Appendix 5. Clan Groups and their Attributes	536
Appendix 6. Totems of Clans	539
Appendix 7. Knotted Cords, Recitative Songs and Flutes	543
Appendix 8. Animals and Plants used as Totems	547
Appendix 9. Attributions to the Places and to the Clans	552
Appendix 10. Examples for the Rules 4, 5, 6	552
References	561
Index	597