

Table of Contents

Foreword	V
----------------	---

Introduction

Ruben Zimmermann and Dogara Ishaya Manomi The “Implicit Ethics” in Titus: Introductory Remarks and Summary of the Contributions	3
--	---

I. Linguistic and Rhetorical Aspects of the Implicit Ethics: A Text-immanent Approach

Luke Timothy Johnson The Pedagogy of Grace: The Experiential Basis of Morality in Titus	37
---	----

Annette Bourland Huizenga Moral Education in Titus: Antitheses for Ethical Living	53
---	----

Dogara Ishaya Manomi The Language of Virtue: Discovering Implicit Virtue-Ethical Linguistic Elements in Titus	69
--	----

Rick Brannan The Language of Ethical Instruction in the Letter to Titus: A View Informed by Discourse Grammar and Speech Act Theory	83
--	----

Jermo van Nes Moral Language and Ethical Argument in Titus: A Reassessment of the Pseudonymity Hypothesis	103
--	-----

Philip H. Towner The Ethical Agenda of Titus: The Time and Space of Ethics	125
--	-----

II. Historical and Contextual Dimensions of the Implicit Ethics: A Socio-historial Approach

Jens Herzer

Ethics, Ethos, and Truth: Reassessing the Question of the Individuality of the Pastoral Epistles 145

Michael Theobald

Internal Ethos or Ethos before the Public Forum? Titus and His Construct of the Opponents 163

Ray Van Neste

“Our People”: Ethics and the Identity of the People of God in the Letter to Titus 189

Harry O. Maier

Ethics and Empire in Titus: Texts, Co-texts, and Contexts 203

III. The Relevance of the Implicit Ethics: A Hermeneutical Approach

Korinna Zamfir

Women’s Vocation and Ministry according to Titus: Ethical Issues and Their Contemporary Relevance 219

Claire S. Smith

Ethics of Teaching and Learning in Christianity Today: Insights from the Book of Titus 237

Hans-Ulrich Weidemann

Written to Be with Paul: Reading Galatians with Titus 255

Marianne Bjelland Kartzow

“Speak evil of no one!” (Titus 3:2): Rethinking Stereotypes and Rhetorical
Gossip Towards an Intersectional Ethics of Justice 283

List of Contributors 297

Index of References 299

Index of Authors 311

Index of Subjects 317