

Table of contents

Introduction	7
Part I     General considerations	11
The right to an identity: The context of the rights of the migrant child Agnieszka Wedeł-Domaradzka	13
Interplay of International and Domestic Laws Governing Birth Registration of Children: Need for Reconsideration Ratemo Tom Junior	37
Climate Change and Refugee Children: The Key Refugee Protection Standards provided by the Convention on Rights of the Child Allan Mukuki	75
“When a child is (going to be) born...” – The influence of motherhood on the status of women irregular migrants Magdalena Póttorak	91
Part II     Regional solutions	111
On integration (not only of migrants) – differently Jacek Mazurkiewicz, Piotr Szymaniec	113

A right to asylum? Ensuring effective protection of migrant children's rights in Africa Tomasz Milej	131
Regional Responses to Nationality, Citizenship and child statelessness: The case of the East Africa Community Emmah Wabuke, Patricia Ouma	151
Rethinking the Right to Nationality in Africa: A Reflection on the Children of Nubian Descent in Kenya Case Faith Kabata	169
 Part III Country studies	 185
Migrant Children in German AnKER centres vs. European and international standards Martyna Łaszewska-Hellriegel	187
Sociological Perspectives on Childhood under Conditions of Refugeeness in Germany Caterina Rohde-Abuba	211
The Principle of the Best Interests of the Child in the Italian System of Protection of Unaccompanied Migrant Children Amina Maneggia	235
New rights for unaccompanied foreign minors in light of the Italian Law 47/2017 Alessia Valongo	269
Bibliography	287