

Contents

List of Images — X

Tables — XI

Acknowledgements — XII

Introduction — 1

Part I Passages To Ireland

Chapter 1

The Distant Option – German Refugees to Ireland, 1933–1938 — 13

The students — 18

The businessmen — 25

The Lisowski story — 27

Chapter 2

“Those days in Vienna...” — 31

Georg Klaar/George Clare — 31

Social profiles — 32

“Those days in Vienna...” — 35

Economics of the dispossessed — 39

Ribbons and zip fasteners — 41

Getting out — 49

The Kagran Group — 50

Protestant helpers — 52

Catholic attempts — 57

... and the Jews? — 60

Chapter 3

The Jews of Komotau — 63

Chapter 4

The German Pogrom and After — 76

The capital and the concentration camp — 77

Out of Saxony — 85

Out of the Rhineland — 89

Chapter 5

The Routes of the Refugees: Italian Passages to Ireland — 92

Part II Exiled in Wartime Ireland

Chapter 6

The State, the Helpers and the Refugees — 99

- “A certain degree of confusion ...” — New challenges in 1938 — 108
- The Irish Co-ordinating Committee for Refugees — 119
- The aid organisations and the new policy — 132
- Doors shut tight — 140
- Care and control — 144
- Assessment and comparison — 145

Chapter 7

Uncharted Terrain – German-speaking Refugees in the Irish Provinces — 153

- Continental urbanites in Irish fields — 153
- Times at the demesnes and other places: workers, sojourners and their hosts — 164
- Students and teachers in the Irish provinces — 173
- “It was all right when foreigners came along to start industries and give employment but [...]” — Exiles in provincial economies — 181
- Les Modes Modernes, Wings and the exile community in Galway — 184
- Happy exile in Cork? — 194
- The exiles of Co. Tipperary — 196
- Longford Ribbons — 203
- Under Western Hats — 210
- On Europe’s fringe — 220

Chapter 8

Continental Dubliners — 228

- “Only entrepreneurial partnership or agony”? Business ventures in exile — 230
- Settled employees — 234
- Job-seekers — 236
- Dependants — 240
- New homes — 245
- The lure of the city — 256

Chapter 9

Academics in Exile — 270

- At Irish universities — 275
- Trinity College — 277

| |
|---|
| Germany's leading serologist – Hans Sachs — 282 |
| Ludwig Hopf – Einstein's first assistant — 289 |
| University College Dublin and the National University of Ireland in Cork, Galway and Maynooth — 300 |
| Ernst Lewy – a linguist with rare abilities — 304 |
| A brief interlude — 310 |
| “Certain distinguished Austrian Professors” — 310 |
| Academics who did not come — 317 |
| The Dublin Institute of Advanced Studies (DIAS) — 323 |
| Overall assessment — 344 |

Chapter 10

Transit Lives — 348

| |
|------------------------------|
| Exit Great Britain — 356 |
| Exit Northern Ireland? — 361 |

Part III After the War

Chapter 11

Refugees Revisited — 365

| |
|------------------------------------|
| Educated in Ireland — 365 |
| Growing old – in Ireland? — 371 |
| Women in exile — 374 |
| Leaving the outposts — 377 |
| Restitution and compensation — 383 |
| Home and identity — 384 |
| Brokers of modernity? — 390 |
| And the academics? — 398 |

Bibliography — 407

| |
|--|
| A Primary sources — 407 |
| B Literature — 415 |
| 1 Secondary literature — 415 |
| 2 Personal recollections and autobiographies — 434 |

Index of Names — 438

Index of Places — 448