

Table of Contents

Introduction	9
Approaching the Truth Issue	9
The Truth Issue and the Problem of Knowledge.....	11
The Correspondence Theory and Other Conceptions of Truth	12
Symbolism and the Nature of Truth	14
Metaphilosophical Assumptions	16
 Part I. Correspondence Truth – Current Research
 Chapter 1. The Fundaments of Modern Correspondence Truth Conceptions. The Truth Theories of Bertrand Russell and Ludwig Wittgenstein.....	21
1.1 Ludwig Wittgenstein’s Elucidation of Correspondence Truth	21
1.2 Bertrand Russell on Truth and the Correspondence Relation.....	28
1.3 The Character of Modern Correspondence Truth Conceptions	35
 Chapter 2. Leszek Nowak’s Relative Truth Conception.....	43
 Chapter 3. Verisimilitude. The Problem of Metaphysical Nature of Correspondence Truth.....	53
3.1 Karl Popper’s Resolution of the Truth Issue in Science	53
3.2 Verisimilitude and Change in Science	58
5.3 Accusations against the Verisimilitude Conception.....	61
3.4 Verisimilitude and the Metaphysical Nature of Correspondence Truth	66

Chapter 4. Partial Truth. Newton C. A. Da Costa and Steven French's Conception.....	73
4.1 Between the Pragmatistic and Correspondence Approaches to Truth.....	73
4.2 The Conception of Partial Truth.....	76
4.3 The Convergent Model of the Development of Science	84
Chapter 5. Approximate Truth Theories	87
5.1 Ryszard Wójcicki's Truth Theory and the Fussiness of Reality	87
5.2 Approximation Truth Which Acknowledges Measurement Error	97
5.3 Approximation Truth and Absolute Truth	100
Chapter 6. The Analytic Method and the Character of The Conception of Truth	103
6.1 The Analytic Method and the Status of Common-sense Knowledge.....	103
6.2 The Analytic Method and the Search for the Nature of Truth.....	111
6.3 Investigating the Nature of Truth	115
 Part II. The Symbolic Nature of Correspondence Truth
 Chapter 7. An Investigation of Correspondence Truth — Method and Assumptions	121
7.1 Focusing the Study on the Correspondence Relation	121
7.2 Metaphysical and Epistemological Realism.....	124
7.3 Analysis of Perception as the Basis of Examining Correspondence Relation	129

Chapter 8 An Analysis of Perception	135
8.1 The Categories of Sensuous Experience.....	135
8.2 The Subject of Perception	142
8.3 Representation and Language	144
8.4 The Physical Perception Phase beyond the Subject	148
8.5 The Subjective Physiological Phase	152
8.6 The Consciousness Phase	156
8.6.1 Concept and model	156
8.7 Transformation of Perceptual Models into Observational Sentences.....	170
8.8 The Model Approach to Knowledge.....	172
 Chapter 9. The Correspondence Relation — Symbolisation	 175
9.1 The Formation of the Correspondence Relation.....	175
9.2 Correspondence and the Subject	175
9.3 Correspondence — the Relation.....	178
9.3.1 The arguments of the correspondence relation.....	184
9.4 Correspondence and Symbolisation.....	185
9.4.1 The symbolic nature of correspondence and correspondence truth.....	197
9.5 The Characteristics of Correspondence Truth	204
9.6 Symbolic Realism	207
 Bibliography	 215