

Table of Contents

Preface 7

Ulrike Babusiaux, Zurich, and Mariko Igimi, Fukuoka
Messages from Antiquity. Roman Law and Current Legal Debates.
Introduction 9

PART ONE: ROMAN LAW AS THE HISTORICAL FOUNDATION OF MODERN PRIVATE LAW

Johannes Platschek, Munich
Strict Liability for Defects as to Quality of an Object Sold.
Application and Exclusion in Roman and Contemporary German Law . . . 15

Pompeo Polito, Rome
Some Considerations on the Relationship between res incorporales and Immaterialgüterrechte 33

Cornelius G. van der Merwe, Stellenbosch
The Practical Application of Roman Law Principles Relating to the Acquisition of Movable Property by accessio and specificatio in Modern
South African and Scots Law 43

PART TWO:
ROMAN LAW IN MODERN LEGAL REASONING

Frits Brandsma, Groningen
Law in Daily Life. Parking Fines and Roman Law 63

Wataru Miyasaka, Tsukuba
Corpus ex distantibus in Roman Law. A Basis for Floating Lien in Japanese
Law 75

Takeshi Sasaki, Kyoto
Roman-Japanese Legacy with the Appointment of second Degree Successor.
An Analysis of the second Petty Bench’s Judgment
(Japanese Supreme Court) on 18th March 1983 107

PART THREE :
MODERN DEBATES IN THE LIGHT OF ANCIENT LAW

Carlos Amunátegui Perelló, Santiago de Chile
Again on the Middle Class in the Roman Republic 115

Ulrike Babusiaux, Zurich
Coordination of Different Layers of Law in the Roman Empire and in the European Union 131

Mariko Igimi, Fukuoka
An Observation on Consumer Protection in Electronic Sale of Goods
from the Perspective of Roman Law 169

Yasunori Kasai, Tokyo
“Information” in the Ancient and Modern.
Hybris and Defamation in Ancient Greek and Roman Law 185

List of Contributors 215

Index of Sources 219

Index of Terms 225