

Contents

List of Tables and Figures — XV

Acronyms and Abbreviations — XVII

Introduction — 1

The Indonesian Ahmadiyya in Scholarly Work — 4

Research Design — 8

Structure of the Book — 13

Part I: The Paradox of Human Rights

Chapter 1 The Theory of Human Rights — 17

Introduction — 17

Philosophical Foundations — 18

Hannah Arendt and Amartya Sen — 19

Interdisciplinary Perspective — 23

Minorities — 24

The Protection of Minorities — 27

Closing Remarks — 31

Chapter 2 Defining Human rights Culture — 32

Introduction — 32

The Concept of a Human Rights Culture — 33

The Development of a Human Rights Culture in Practice — 36

Human Rights Culture: Assessing Human Rights Protection — 41

Incorporating Human Rights in National Laws — 42

Building Human Rights Awareness — 44

Closing Remarks — 47

Chapter 3 Human Rights Discourse in Indonesia — 49

Introduction — 49

The History of Human Rights in Indonesia — 50

Independence and the Universal Declaration of Human Rights
(1945–1948) — 51

The Reign of Sukarno (1945–1966) — 51

Suharto's New Order (1966–1998) — 52

The Post-Authoritarian Era (post-1998) —	53
The Legal Foundation of Human Rights —	56
The Pancasila —	56
Open Statement in the 1945 Constitution —	57
Body of the 1945 Constitution —	58
International Human Rights Conventions —	58
Indonesian Laws and Regulations —	60
The Article 28 Amendment —	62
Types and Origins of Human Rights Violations in Indonesia —	65
Types —	65
Origins —	65
Closing Remarks —	67

Chapter 4 Religious Minorities in Post-Authoritarian Indonesia — 69

Introduction —	69
The Post-Authoritarian Setting —	70
Legal Foundation for the Protection of Minority Rights —	71
The Majority-Minority Relationship —	73
The Position of the State —	76
The Crucial Role of Civil Society —	80
The Impact of Decentralization —	82
Civil Liberties and the Crisis of Religious Freedom —	84
Closing Remarks —	86

Part II: Portraying the Ahmadiyya Minority Groups

Chapter 5 The Ahmadiyya and Its Historical Origin — 91

Introduction —	91
The Origins of the Ahmadiyya —	92
Mirza Ghulam Ahmad —	92
A Controversial Theological Position —	95
Three-Pronged Resistance in India —	98
The Role of the Caliph and Global Movement of the Ahmadiyya —	99
Closing Remarks —	103

Chapter 6 The Ahmadiyya in the Contemporary Global and Indonesia's Context — 105

Introduction —	105
----------------	-----

Global Development of the Ahmadiyya —	106
The History of the Ahmadiyya in Indonesia —	110
Post-Colonial Indonesia —	110
Two Streams of the Ahmadiyya —	112
The Tension: The Decrees against the Ahmadiyya —	115
The Legalization of the Anti-Ahmadiyya Movement —	117
Closing Remarks —	119

Part III: The Indonesian Ahmadiyya and the Violation of Human Rights

Chapter 7 Triggers and Actors Involved in the Violation of the Ahmadiyya — 123

Introduction —	123
Decrees as a Trigger for Human Rights Violations —	125
Anti-Ahmadiyya Decrees: Religious-Based and State-Based Decrees —	125
The Involvement of Institutions —	131
State Actors and Institutions —	133
Non-State Actors —	135
Reactions to the 2008 Joint Decree —	140
Closing Remarks —	142

Chapter 8 The Ahmadiyya and the Violation of Substantive Human Rights — 144

Introduction —	144
Major Forms of Violation —	145
Prohibition —	146
Displacement —	149
Murder —	151
Crimes against Humanity —	154
Closing —	156
The Violation of Substantive Human Rights —	156
The Right to Due Process —	157
The Right to Integrity —	161
The Right to Property —	162
The Right to an Adequate Standard of Living —	163
The Right to Education and Culture —	165
The Right to Equality and Non-Discrimination —	166

Closing Remarks — 167

Part IV: The Politics of Human Rights Protection in Indonesia

Chapter 9 The Politics of Human Rights Protection in Indonesia — 171

Introduction — 171

The Response of Various Actors — 172

The Politics of Protection — 175

The Deadlock of Human Rights Protection in Indonesia — 178

The Constitutional Gap — 179

Religious Politics — 188

Lack of Institutional Protection — 194

Closing Remarks — 200

Chapter 10 Co-constructing Human Right Protection — 202

Introduction — 202

Revitalizing Indonesia's Constitution — 203

Co-Constructing an Inclusive Human rights Framework — 205

The Involvement of Non-State Actors — 208

Human rights Defenders and the Advocacy Revolutionary — 210

Human Rights Advocacy by NGOs as a Political Movement — 212

Closing Remarks — 213

Conclusion: Contribution and Prediction — 216

The Scientific Contribution of the Concept of a Human Rights Culture — 216

Strengthening Human Rights — 219

The Normative Challenge — 219

The Political Challenge — 221

The Sociological Challenge — 222

Future Research: Strengthening Human Rights through a Domestic Adjustment — 223

Conclusion — 225

Bibliography — 228

Index — 274