

CONTENT

Foreword	ix
Abbreviations	xi
1 Introduction	1
2 Notes on phonology	3
2.1 Consonants	3
2.2 Vowels	4
2.3 Tones	4
3 Notes on grammar	6
3.1 The clause	6
3.2 The verbal group	6
3.3 The noun phrase	8
3.4 Derivation	9
3.5 Clause combining	9
3.6 Thetical grammar	10
4 Texts	12
4.1 Introduction	12
4.2 How the Akie came to be what they are	12
4.2.1 How heaven and earth were separated	13
4.2.2 How the Akie became hunter-gatherers	21
4.3 Honey collecting	45
4.3.1 Bahati hits pegs into a baobab	46
4.3.2 Papalai describes how honey is harvested	51
4.4 Hunting	57
4.4.1 Korósee , the "smoke birds"	57
4.4.2 Papalai's buffalo story	61
4.5 Ritual activities	69
4.5.1 Papalai tells about kalantáísye	70
4.6 The women's perspective	74
4.6.1 Nenkishon tells about her life	74
4.6.2 Nevumba tells about the relationship between Akie and Maasai	90
4.7 Folk tales	96
4.7.1 A child called Ntaakwa	97
4.7.2 The monster and the child	99
4.7.3 The woman and the monster	103
4.7.4 The fat girl and the monster	108
4.7.5 Monster and the girls who collected fruits	117
4.7.6 The monster who married a girl	121
4.8 Blessing rituals	123
4.8.1 The Blessing the Hunting Weapons ceremony	123
5 Akie - English list	141
6 English - Akie list	268
References	331