

Inhaltsverzeichnis

Foreword	5
Camilla Crea, Martin Schmidt-Kessel, Pasquale Femia and Christina Möllnitz
European Economic Constitution: Results of a German- Italian Dialogue for a Solidarity-oriented Internal Market . . .	11
I. Private Power	27
Camilla Crea & Luca E. Perriello
Health, Environment and Economic Interests: From Balanc- ing to Ensuring Effective Remedies	27
Martin Schmidt-Kessel
Curtailing private Power. The German Stadium Ban Case and its Consequences for Digital Markets	73
Stefano Deplano
Italian-European Property Law and 'Externalities'. The case of the Non-Polluting Owner	87
Alessandra Quarta
Beyond Assimilation: Are Terms of Use Really Contracts? . . .	115

II. Economic Power of the State	139
Christina Möllnitz
Procurement Laws – an enforcement option for (social) policy decisions?	139
Valeria De Oto
State Aid and Civil Law Theory	153
III. Individuals as Objects	169
Alisa Rank-Haedler
Implications of the Right to Data Protection (Art. 8 of the European Charter on Fundamental Rights) for the Commercialisation of Personal Data	169
Andrea Maria Garofalo
Protection and Free Movement of Personal Data in EU Law . .	185
IV. Balancing Markets: Competition and beyond . . .	241
Friedemann Kainer
Private Law and Economic Constitution: Free Competition as a Method of Interpretation	241
Letizia Coppo
In Search of a Model for a Solidarity-Oriented Contract Law .	267
Bernd Kannowski
Towards a History of Human Rights	301
Assunta di Martino
The case of "Hidden City-Tickets": Consumer behavior and impact on balancing power in contractual relations	311

Marco Farina

Unfair Terms and Supplementation of the Contract 331

Martin Schmidt-Kessel

A Balanced Internal Market – Consequences of the Conceptual
Shift in Article 3(3) TEU for Consumer Protection Regulation 357

Autoren und Herausgeber 371