

Contents

Introduction	1
SABINE FÖLLINGER
1. Context, Structure and Method	4
2. The Role of (Female) Matter and the Embryogenesis	6
3. Heat, Pneuma and the Male Seed	8
4. Reception	9
Bibliography	10
I. Content, Structure and Method
Aristotle's GA and the Hippocratic Discourse on Generation ..	15
CHRISTOPH HAMMANN
Bibliography	40
Connections not so obvious: the Historia animalium and De generatione animalium on generation	45
JAMES G. LENNOX
I. Introduction	45
II. HA V–VI in the Corpus Zoologicum	51
III. Generation and the Structure of HA	54
IV. The Intrusion of Copulation into HA V	57
V. The Evidence of Comparable Passages	60
VI. A Hypothesis about a Disconnect	63
Bibliography	65
Aristotle's Generation of Animals V as a Coda	67
KLAUS CORCILIUS
I. The double problem of GA V	67
II. Two views	76
III. On the Movement of Animals 11 as a parallel to GA V 1–7?	81

IV. The final section of the Movement of Animals 11 and GA V 8	93
V. Conclusion	98
Bibliography	99

The Way of Gaining Knowledge: Argumentation and Literary Presentation in Aristotle's Generation of Animals 101
SABINE FÖLLINGER AND THOMAS BUSCH

1. Introduction	101
2. The art of argumentation and literary representation in GA .	104
3. Example: GA I 2	110
716 a 2–17	111
716 a 17–b 3	113
716 b 3–12	114
Bibliography	115
Appendix: Example: GA I 2 (716 a 2–b 12)	119

Aristotle's Methods for Establishing the Facts Concerning the Female Menses in GA I 19–22 123
MARISKA LEUNISSEN

1. Introduction	123
2. A close reading of Aristotle's evidence for the establishment of the facts concerning the female menses in GA I 19–20 ...	126
Aristotle on whether the female menses are similar or analogous to male seed (GA I 19)	126
Aristotle on whether the female menses are like the male seed (GA I 20)	131
3. A close reading of Aristotle's use of facts about female animals for determining the causal role of male seed in reproduction in GA I 21–22	136
4. Upshot: Aristotle's two-fold strategy for establishing the facts concerning the female menses	141
Bibliography	144

Analogy in De generatione animalium: its place in explanation 147
KURT SIER

I.	149
---------	-----

II.	161
III.	166
Bibliography	175

II. The Role of (Female) Matter and the Embryogenesis

Hybrids in Aristotle's Generation of Animals	181
SOPHIA CONNELL

I. Introduction	181
II. Hybrids as a threat to species fixity	182
III. The mule (and other hybrids) as product(s) of contamination	183
IV. Hybrids in GA II	187
V. Context and content of GA II 8	191
VI. Puzzles about resemblance and form	201
VII. Conclusions	204
Bibliography	205

Material Persistence in Aristotle's Generation of Animals	209
ANNE SIEBELS PETERSON

1. Introduction	209
2. Does Matter Persist, or Merely Originate? A Controversial Exegetical Basis	210
3. In What Sense is Animal Generation Gradual?	216
4. Aristotle's Biological Motivations for Material Persistence ..	226
5. Conclusion	229
Bibliography	231

Aristotle on the order of embryonic development and the homonymy principle	233
DIANA QUARANTOTTO

I.	234
II.	249
III.	253
Appendix I: GA II 1.734 a 25–33	259
Appendix II: the automaton model in GA II	263
Bibliography	265

Heart and Soul in Aristotle's Generation of Animals II 269

CHRISTOF RAPP

1. Context and presuppositions 269
2. The argument and structure of GA II 1–6 276
3. The soul at the beginning of new life 289
4. The role of the heart 301
5. Conclusions 310
- Bibliography 314

Refining Method in Zoology: Aristotle on Aging and Generation 319

KATHARINA EPSTEIN

- Introduction 319
- Aging and Aristotle's Scientific Method 325
- Aging and Generation 328
- Final Remarks 336
- Bibliography 336

III. Heat, Pneuma and the Male Seed

The Role of pneuma in De generatione animalium 343

JOCHEN ALTHOFF

- I. 343
- II. 352
- III. 358
- Bibliography 363

Spontaneous Generation, Plants and Environmental Digestion 367

JAMES WILBERDING

- The Analysis of Generative Matter, Part 1
(GA III 11.762 a 8–32) 368
- The Analysis of Generative Matter, Part 2
(GA III 11.762 a 32–b 18) 377
- The Soul-Principle in GA III 11.762 a 8–b 18 381
- Bibliography 388

Aristotle's Explanation of Multiparity 391

DAVID LEFEBVRE

1. Multiparity in GA I 20 and IV 4 395

2. Aristotle's explanation of multiparity	407
3. The division of both residues and the pairing of the powers	414
Bibliography	416

IV. The Reception of GA

Aristophanes of Byzantium and Aristotle's Generation of Animals	421
ANDREA FALCON

Introduction	421
The Goal and Macrostructure of Aristophanes' Summary	423
Aristotle's Generation of Animals in Aristophanes' Summary (I 27–90)	429
Conclusion	440
Bibliography	441

Peripatetic views on generation and reproduction in later texts and contexts	443
OLIVER HELLMANN

Bibliography	463
------------------------	-----

List of Contributors	469
Index locorum	475