

1	Introduction: Future 4.0	1
1.1	Employees	5
1.2	Places of Work	6
1.3	Stress Factors and Well-being Factors	9
	References	11
2	State of Research: Measures for Well-being in Different Areas	13
2.1	Measures on the Building Envelope: Implementation of a Colour Concept	13
2.2	Indoor Measures: Nature and Art	15
2.3	Measures Relating to Architecture and Social Spaces	19
	References	21
3	A Look into Practice: Interviews and Literature Research	23
3.1	Office and Laboratory Building	24
3.2	Hotel Business	26
3.3	Shopping Centre	30
3.4	Idea Train	33
3.5	Cruise Ships	37
3.6	Service Provider	41
3.6.1	Savings Bank Branch	41
3.6.2	Fraport	42
3.7	Urban Development	48
3.8	Garden(s)	56
	References	60
4	Creating the Target Matrix	63
5	Explanation of the Well-being Factors	67
5.1	Architecture	67
5.1.1	Healthy Construction and Maintenance	67

5.1.2	Functional Room Layout	68
5.1.3	A Parking Space for Each Vehicle	71
5.2	Ergonomics	72
5.2.1	Adequate Furniture	72
5.2.2	Office and Workshop Furniture	72
5.2.3	IT Equipment	73
5.3	Work-life Balance	74
5.3.1	Mutual Agreement	74
5.3.2	Employers & Company Alignment/Change Management	74
5.3.3	Appreciation	75
5.4	Perception	75
5.4.1	Air	76
5.4.2	Light	76
5.4.3	Noise	77
5.4.4	Body	78
5.4.5	Colours	78
5.4.6	Fragrances	79
5.5	Nature	80
5.5.1	Plants	80
5.5.2	Water and Sea	82
5.5.3	Animals	82
5.6	Communication	83
5.6.1	Structural Measures for Communication	84
5.6.2	Informal Communication	84
5.6.3	Communication Concept	90
5.7	Health	90
5.7.1	Hygiene and Allergies	90
5.7.2	Place of Silence/Power Napping	91
5.7.3	Mental Activity	91
5.7.4	Safety/Quality	92
5.7.5	Sport and Exercise	92
	References	93
6	How the Matrix Works	97
6.1	Application 1: Fitness Centre	97
6.2	Application 2: Pharmaceutical Production	99
6.3	Evaluation of the Use Cases	102

7	Summary	105
	References	107
	Appendix	109
	List of Photos	111
	Index	113