

Contents

Acknowledgements.....	9
1. Introduction.....	11
1.1 Overview of the scholarship	13
1.2 Methodological considerations	19
2. Historical introduction	27
2.1 The Backdrop to the Emergence of Transylvanian Sabbatarianism and its Early Period.....	27
2.2 Reasons for the spread of Sabbatarianism	52
2.3 The later history of Sabbatarianism.....	55
3. Presentation of the Sources	61
3.1 Song collections.....	64
3.1.1 The songbook of Simon Péchi	64
3.1.2 Codex Jancsó	65
3.1.3 The songbook of János Kissolymosi Mátéfi.....	67
3.1.4 General characteristics of the Sabbatarian songs	67
3.2 Miscellaneous and prose codices	75
3.2.1 The codex with the signature MsU. 1135.	75
3.2.2 Codex Árkosi or the Old Book of Sabbatarians.....	78
3.2.3 The codex of János Kissolymosi Mátéfi or Codex Kalocsai.....	82
4. The hermeneutics and Bible-criticism of Sabbatarians and Matthias Vehe-Glirius	85
4.1 The Sabbatarian view on the Old Testament.....	87
4.2 The Sabbatarian view on the New Testament	93
4.3 Principles of Bible interpretation.....	98
4.4 Conclusion of the chapter	110
5. The fundamental principles of Sabbatarianism	113
5.1 Josef Albo and the system of fundamentals.....	115
5.2 The first fundamental principle: the Sabbatarian view on God.....	118
5.2.1 The one and only God	118
5.2.2 The Sabbatarian Messiah	122
5.2.3 The holy spirit	137

5.3	The second fundamental principle: the revelation of God	138
5.3.1	The law	138
5.3.2	The authenticity of the messenger	147
5.3.3	The changeability of divine laws.....	149
5.3.4	The path to salvation.....	152
5.4	The third fundamental principle: Sabbatarian eschatology	160
5.5	Conclusion	172
6.	Sabbatarian religious practices.....	177
6.1	The use of songs.....	179
6.2	The use of prayers	188
6.3	Regular feasts	191
6.3.1	Sabbath	194
6.3.2	New Moon.....	202
6.3.3	Passover	204
6.3.4	Feast of Firstlings.....	211
6.3.5	New Year	212
6.3.6	The Day of Atonement	213
6.3.7	The Feast of Tabernacles	215
6.4	Non-regular feasts and community events.....	216
6.5	Ritual purity and sanctity	221
6.5.1	Human purity. Participants on the liturgy and community events	224
6.5.2	The purity and sanctity of places and objects	225
6.5.3	The purity of food.....	228
6.5.4	Ritual purification.....	231
6.6	Conclusion.....	234
7.	The Sabbatarian self-image and reflections on Christianity and Judaism.....	237
8.	Conclusion	249
	Bibliography	257
1.	Unprinted Sources	257
2.	Printed Sources	258
3.	Literature	265
	Index	285