

Contents

Acknowledgments — VII

Foreword — IX

1	Introduction — 1
1.1	American Studies, Black Women, Literature and the Right to Say Something About All of These — 1
1.1.1	Claiming American Studies — 2
1.1.2	Language, Literature, and American Studies — 7
1.1.3	Violence and Trauma — 10
1.1.4	Globalization, Capitalism, Migration, and Social Inequality — 17
1.1.5	A Minor Literature — 21
1.2	Race and Literature — 24
1.2.1	African-America — 24
1.2.2	Slave Narrative — 28
1.2.3	Writing as Agency – the Bildungsroman — 32
1.2.4	A Child’s Perspective and Subaltern Studies — 39
2	From Intersectionality to an Ecology of Knowledges – The Knowledges of Literature — 42
2.1	Intersectionality — 46
2.1.1	A Critique of Intersectionality — 50
2.1.2	Intersectionality, Decolonial Thinking, and the Ecology of Knowledges — 52
2.1.3	Epistemologies of the South — 55
2.1.4	Sociology of Emergences — 59
2.1.5	Sociology of Absences — 61
2.1.6	Intercultural Translation — 65
3	Danticat and Kincaid — 68
3.1	Jamaica Kincaid — 69
3.1.1	Fiction, Autobiography and Truth Telling in Jamaica Kincaid — 74
3.1.2	Mother-Daughter, Mother-Island — 82
3.1.3	How do you get to be this way? — 91
3.1.4	Daffodils — 103
3.2	Edwidge Danticat — 109
3.2.1	Daffodils and Adaptations — 114

3.2.2	Ou byen? Are you all right? PTSD and representation —	121
3.2.3	You're a good girl, aren't you? – Control and the Female Body —	124
3.2.4	Trauma and the Body —	137
3.2.5	Ou libéré? Trauma Recognition, Working Through and Paths For Healing —	143
4	Morrison and hooks —	165
4.1	Toni Morrison —	166
4.1.1	God Help the Child —	169
4.1.2	How else can we hold on to a little dignity? – Colorism as Violence —	178
4.1.3	What you do to children matters – Children's trauma Representation —	190
4.1.4	The nicest man in the world —	208
4.2	bell hooks —	216
4.2.1	Silences —	221
4.2.2	Heirlooms, toys and books – education through Objects —	231
4.2.3	We are women together. Womanhood, sexuality and race. —	244
4.2.4	A Door Closing in a Room Without Air – Domestic Violence and Childhood —	260
4.2.5	They Need to be Valued —	268
5	Conclusion —	282
6	Works Cited —	286
Index — 295		