

Agnes Martin	About Agnes	6
	About the paintings	11
Works 1956–67	I want to talk to you about the work...	16
	Short essays,	20
	The silence on the floor of my house...	24
	The struggle of existence...	32
	What we do not see if we do not see...	34
	The Thinking Reed,	40
	We cannot even imagine how to be humble...	48
	Agnes decides to stop painting	57
Works 1971–89	On a Clear Day screenprints,	58
	Comment about the prints	60
	Reflections	62
	Studio visit: October 8, 1974	64
	Excerpt from Beginning No. 5	72
	Studio visit: April 30, 1976	76
	What is real?	81
	After completing Gabriel	88
	Studio visit: March 8, 1977	92
	Studio visit: January 23, 1978	101
	Studio visit: March 5, 1979	110
	Letter to the Whitney Museum of American Art	121
	Advice to young artists	123
	This koon...	124
	I hope I have made it clear that the work is about...	128
	The dark paintings	136

Works 1991–2004	Statement re. art work,	141
	We perceive. We see...	144
	The current of the river of life moves us,	164
	When I think of art I think of beauty...,	168
	Response to art	176
	The adventurous state of mind	184
	In my best moments	200
	Agnes's last days	203
Works on paper	Answer to an enquiry	205
	The untroubled mind	215
	Agnes's relevant biography	242
	List of works	246
	Biography and list of exhibitions	250
	Further reading	264