

Contents

List of Figures	ix
Preface	xi
Acknowledgements	xix
PART I The Poetics of Memory and Heroic Identity	1
JOHN SCATTERGOOD
1 Sir Gawain and the Green Knight : Story-Telling, Memory and “Trouthe”	3
NATALIE HANNA
2 Chaucer’s Worthiest Knight: Heroic Identity in Troilus and Criseyde	29
PART II Cultural Memory and National Identities	51
MARTA MILLER
3 Negotiating the Memory of Kings and Icelandic Identity: The Ideological Complexity of Morkinskinna and Heimskringla	53
ALEKSANDAR Z. SAVIĆ
4 “A Most Splendent Path to Jerusalem”: Remembering the Holy Land in Medieval Serbian Hagiography (Thirteenth to Fourteenth Century)	67

MICHAEL KNUDSON
5 Where Fact Meets Fiction: The Scandinavian Historical Roots of the Middle English Romance Havelok the Dane	85
PART III Emotional Identities	103
LUCIE KAEMPFER
6 The Memory of Joy in Troilus and Criseyde : Identity and Emotional Temporality	105
GERALD MORGAN
7 An Aristotelian Ideal: The Beauty and Virtue of Blanche of Lancaster in Chaucer's Book of the Duchess (c. 1368)	121
SCOTT EATON
8 Confessions of a Witch-Finder: Fear and Desire in John Stearne's A Confirmation and Discovery of Witchcraft	155
PART IV Nota Bene : The Craft of Memory and Corrective Instruction	173
SUMNER BRAUND
9 Meditations for a King? King Alfred, His Memory and the Old English Soliloquies	175
SEAMUS DWYER
10 Scraping, Scribing and Shriving: The Language of Writing, Judgement and Penitence in Chaucer's "Adam Scryeyn"	193

PART V	Memorialising Protestant Identities in Early Modern England	209
ROSEMARY KEEP
11	Ribbons and Righteousness: Memory and Multiple Identity in the Portrait of a Preston Haberdasher and His Family	211
CATHERINE R. EVANS
12	Metanoia and Miserere Mei Deus : Penitential Memory in Anne Lock and Mary Sidney Herbert's Translations of Psalm 51	221
Notes on Contributors		243
Index		247