

Contents

List of Contributors	9
----------------------------	---

Iván Iglesias and Gemma Pérez Zalduondo

Introduction: Music Historiography and the Spanish Civil War	11
--------------------------------------------------------------------	----

Luis Díaz Viana and Ignacio Fernández de Mata

Chapter 1: The Dispute for the “People” and Its Songs: A Sonic Battle at the Front and Rearguard during the Spanish Civil War	25
-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	----

Igor Contreras Zubillaga

Chapter 2: Composing for the Francoist Side during the Spanish Civil War	59
--------------------------------------------------------------------------------	----

Yolanda F. Acker

Chapter 3: Orchestral Music in Madrid during the Spanish Civil War (1936–1939)	79
--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	----

Atenea Fernández Higuero

Chapter 4: The Madrid Conservatory during the Spanish Civil War and the Immediate Post-War Years: Student Movements, Conflict and Violence	137
--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----

Olimpia García-López

Chapter 5: Sounds of a City in the Rearguard: Music in Seville during the Spanish Civil War (1936–1939)	163
---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----

Nelly Álvarez

Chapter 6: Anthems, Identity and Mobilization in the Francoist Rearguard: Valladolid, 1936–1939	189
-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----

Walter Aaron Clark

Chapter 7: Between Heaven and Hell: The Career of Guitarist Celedonio Romero during and after the Spanish Civil War	219
---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----

Consuelo Carredano

Chapter 8: Republicans as Well as Musicians: Management and Transfer to Mexico of Refugees in France (1939–1942)	247
------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----

Beatriz Martínez del Fresno

Chapter 9: “Un spectacle guerrier.” Traditional Dance in the Spanish Pavilion at the International Exhibition in Paris (1937)	277
-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----

Lidia López

Chapter 10: Music for the Screen during the Spanish Civil War	321
---------------------------------------------------------------------	-----

Gemma Pérez Zalduondo

Chapter 11: Silence, Sound and Imaginaries: Soundscape and Musical Programming in the Funerary Ceremonies of José Antonio Primo de Rivera (1939)	343
--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----

Belén Pérez Castillo

Chapter 12: Repression and Redemption: Music in the Prisons of the Early Francoist Period	373
-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----

Pedro Ordóñez Eslava

Chapter 13: Traces in the Stone: The Civil War and Music in 21st Century Spain	405
------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	------------