

Table of Contents

Lanzarote, island of volcanoes – an introduction	6
Geography and climate	8
Islands – focal points of evolution	10

Habitats

El Jable – the power of the sands	12
Agriculture	20
Risco de Famara - isla ecológica	22
Barrancos – remaining wilderness	27
Malpaís de la Corona	34
Ascent to the crater of Monte Corona	36
The lava tunnel of the Malpaís de la Corona	40
Jameos del Agua – a window to the deep sea	43
Túnel de la Atlántida – a biological treasure trove	50
Timanfaya National Park – a moonscape comes to life	52
Rocky shores, lagoons and salt pans	56

Plants and Animals

Lichens – the power of unity	60
Treasure of the “Purple Islands”	62
Parasites – life at the expense of others	64
Food web of the Opuntia field	68
Darkling beetles – animals of the desert	71
The end of the blue flotilla	72
Life among breakers	76
Bivalves, snails and cuttlebones	79
Fruits of the sea	83
Characteristic birds of the island	86
Masters of disguise	90
Of migrants, winter residents and accidental visitors	94
Birds of lagoons, salterns and rocky shores	97
A sea view – gulls, terns and pardelas	98
A flea brought it to light	99
Lanzarote – isla ecológica?	102
Suggested trips	107