

CONTENTS

New Guinea Communications ix

Acknowledgement xi

Foreword xv

Photos xxiii

Info Boxes xxvii

1	Introduction.....	1
2	I moved into Cinematography to pursue a revolutionary cause.....	13
	A schooling between England and Australia	16
	Odd jobs.....	21
	Living in King's Cross.....	23
	Sailing back to Britain	29
	Graduating from the Birmingham College of Art and Design.....	35
	Going back to Australia	42
	Looking for a job.....	44
3	I was the team leader of myself	47
	Working at the Tourist Board.....	47
	At the Institute of Papua New Guinea Studies.....	60
4	I always sit down with the community and explain what the film is going to be	81
	Filming Tighten the Drums just post-Independence.....	83
	Gogodala: A cultural revival?	91
	The Red Bowmen	101
	Malagan Labadama: A tribute to Buk Buk	117

5	Tukana was my first drama film: Bougainville stories.....	129
	Thinking about a sequel to Tukana	139
	BRA, the Bougainville story or In search of Francis: Another uncompleted film project.....	143
	Siapan ikam, ol waitman i go pinis!: An impeded feature film	153
6	My films do speak for themselves	157
	Man without Pigs	158
	Bridewealth for a Goddess	167
	Ramu Pawa. A diary of Yonki Dam	172
	Betelnut Bisnis	178
7	Working with other filmmakers in the country.....	187
	“Dennis O’Rourke and I had a similar sort of vibes”	187
	Japanese friendships	203
8	Skul Bilong Wokim Piksa.....	223
	Creation of the Skul in Goroka	225
	Partnership with the Ateliers Varan	228
9	The role of the NFI is to be a national film institute.....	247
	Housing issues.....	247
	Staff and management issues.....	252
	A vision for the NFI.....	255
	Making films.....	258
	Preserving and archiving films.....	263
10	Conversations about filmmaking in Papua New Guinea, past and present.....	269
	Changes in filmmaking because of changes in technology.....	280

	Film custody	287
	Past and future of film and television in Papua New Guinea	290
11	Living with memories.....	299
	CHRIS OWEN'S FILMOGRAPHY	307
	REFERENCES.....	309