

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Acknowledgements	i
List of figures, plates, and tables	iii
Note on orthography, proverbs and translations	v
Credits and permissions	vii
Preface	xi

1	“WE ARE ALL STRANGERS.” HYPOTHESES ON THE ORIGINS OF THE NZEMA	1
	Introduction	1
	Apollonia and European sources	6
	The origins of the Nzema: a web of paths	25
2	FORAGERS OR CULTIVATORS? THE “BIG BANG” THEORY OF AKAN HISTORY RECONSIDERED	43
	The Debate on Wilks’s Theory	43
	The “hunters” problem	45
	The question of transition	50
	The parameters of a foraging economy	53
	A model of transition to a swidden cultivation economy	54
	A glance at the Akan pre-Atlantic history	56
	A comparison with Wilks’s analysis	62
	Conclusion	64
3	KINSHIP AND HISTORY. THE ANTIQUITY OF THE AKAN MATRICLANS	67
	Matriliny vs. patriliney	67
	The problem of the abusua	72
	Matrilines and patrification	74

Children, profit and plantain circles	78
Asalo abusua, suakunlu abusua	79
Marriage in the house: an elementary kinship logic	82
Cross-cousin marriage	82
Marriage with a slave	84
The Akan kinship systems	88
Elementary or semi-complex?	93
Structure and history	96

4 SYNCRETISM ON THE COAST OF MINA (GOLD COAST): FROM THE PORTUGUESE EVANGELIZATION TO THE WATER-CARRIERS 99

Foreword	99
The Prophet William Wadé Harris	100
Main assumptions on Harrist syncretism	105
The evangelization of the Guinea coast (15th-19th c.)	108
The Roman Church jurisdictional action in Africa	112
The characteristics of Ghanaian Harrist syncretism	116

5 DISCOURSE AND EVENT 119

The language of knowledge and power	119
History as discourse and investigation	119
The singing cock: a drummed metaphor	121
The search for truth and the sacred nature of history	123
The needle's eye and the secret of the elders	127
The Nzema conception of history	129
History and historicity in Africa	129
The secret of the ancestors	131
A metaphysical theory of history	132

6	PAWNSHIP AND DOMESTIC SLAVERY IN CHIEFTAINCY DISPUTES	137
	Foreword. The antlion and the frog	137
	The records of the chieftaincy disputes.....	138
	Oral tradition as legal evidence and its transformations	140
	The Ngelekazo stool dispute	141
	The 1947 case	143
	The 1954 case	145
	The 1990 case	153
	A provisional conclusion	157
	The Bonyere stool dispute	160
	Bonyere: oral traditions and (western) history	162
	Slavery and pawnship in traditional discourse	165
	A contested human sacrifice	169
	The heritage of pawnship and slavery	171
 7	 WEALTH, SLAVERY, AND WITCHCRAFT IN AKAN PROVERBS	 175
	Foreword	175
	The power of gold. Gold is power	176
	Money relatives: kinship and slavery	181
	Wisdom and witchcraft	183
 8	 COCONUT: A TREE OF LIFE	 187
	Foreword	187
	Cash-crops, matriliney and gender	189
	The production of coconut oil: Ngelekazo 1972-1989	191
	Gender transition in oil production	195

The coconut price	200
Oil production at Old Kabenlasuazo in 2005	202

9 THE WORK OF THE ANCESTORS AND THE PROFIT OF THE LIVING 209

Towards a local economic theory	209
Basic economic ideas	212
Land tenure	215
Work, profit, and loss	220
The value of work vs. utility	222
Profit and wealth	227

Index	231
Glossary of Nzema and Twi Terms	241
References	245
Acronyms and abbreviations	245
Sources	247
Archival sources	247
Cartographic sources	247
Manuscript maps and portolanos	247
Monumenta Cartographica, Catalogues, and other Cartographic sources ..	249
Primary sources	250
Ecclesiastic sources	254
Works cited	257
Works in Nzema language	283