

TABLE OF CONTENTS

6	Foreword
24	Duchess Anna Amalia Library – Beginnings, Spaces and Knowledge
42	Tour of the Library and Its Collections
64	Friendship
66	Manuscript Migrations – Friendship Albums and Medieval Codices
72	Printed Matter
74	Old Prints – Printmaking, Publishing and Use
80	Revolutionary
82	Pamphlets – A Key Medium of the Reformation
86	Faustian
88	Focus on Faust – On the History of a Collection
92	Popular
94	Beyond the Classics – Entertainment Literature around 1800
100	Artistic
102	Great Heads – The Busts in the Rokokosaal
106	Botanical
108	The Horticultural Libraries – From Biodiversity to Citrus Cultivation

112	Musical
114	Sounding Residence – The Ducal Music Collection
120	Strategic
122	Military Library – The Science of Warfare
126	Global
128	Maps and Globes – The Discovery of the World
132	Universal
134	Goethe's Library – From a Classicist's Workshop
138	Philosophical
140	Nietzsche's Library – Thinking and Working with Books
144	Oppositional
146	Beyond State Doctrine – Underground Literature and Artists' Books from East Germany
148	Fragile
150	Charred Books – Fragments in a New Form
154	History of the Library at a Glance
158	Literature