

Contents

Acknowledgements	7
------------------------	---

Agnieszka Kampka, Katarzyna Molek-Kozakowska Rhetoric and the public sphere: Making a case for a knowledge society	9
--	---

Part One: Visualization as a strategy in knowledge representation

Cezar M. Ornatowski Knowledge and surveillance society	27
--	----

Christine Isager A poor show of knowing: the horror and comedy of unsuccessful writers on film	43
---	----

Marcus Gottschling Lend me your eyes: Creating immediate understanding through Prezi	57
--	----

Part Two: Rhetorical and argumentative resources in the public sphere

Martijn Wackers, Jaap de Jong and Bas Andeweg Structure strategies for a memorable speech: the use of rhetorical retention techniques by scholars and politicians	75
--	----

Louise Schou Therkildsen Becoming a citizen: Knowledge and identity in European textbooks for citizenship tests	93
--	----

David Isaksen From calutrons to Congress: The democratic challenge of specialized knowledge	109
--	-----

Part Three: National varieties of rhetorical action

Gabriela Scripnic Emotion-invoking strategies in the presentation of Roşia Montană Project in the Romanian public sphere	131
---	-----

Hilde van Belle

Polemics and paradoxes in the media:

The case of the Dutch TV-show Pauw 149

Ludmilla A'Beckett

Stigmatizing female oppositionists in Russia:

Stances toward comparisons with Joan of Arc 167

Part Four: Rhetoric, pedagogy and production of knowledge for democratic citizenship

Maureen Daly Goggin

Preparing students for the emergent knowledge society:

Rethinking learning and pedagogy in rhetoric 189

Ove Bergersen

Kindergartens and the civic art of rhetoric:

Citizens, character and knowledge 209

Anne E. Porter

'Responsibilizing' the youth: The rhetoric of civic participation in the World Bank's 2009 climate change essay competition..... 223

Contributors..... 239

List of figures..... 243

Index 245