

CONTENTS

Preface	xiii
Acknowledgments	xxvii
Chapter 1. Maccabees Not Mecca: The Biblical Subtext and the
Apocalyptic Context of Sūrat al-Fīl (Q 105)	1
Text and Translation of Sūrat al-Fīl	2
The Traditional Islamic Context of Sūrat al-Fīl	3
Problems with the Traditional Islamic
Context of Sūrat al-Fīl	4
The “Maccabees” Books of Late Antiquity	8
2 Maccabees—Divine Intervention Rescues the
Jews of Jerusalem from Annihilation by Seleucid
War Elephants	9
3 Maccabees—Divine Intervention Rescues the
Egyptian Jews from Annihilation by Ptolemaic
War Elephants	11
The Maccabean Subtext of Sūrat al-Fīl	12

Clay Balls from Small Birds—Or Stones Inscribed with the Lord's Decrees of Judgment and Delivered by His Ominous Messengers?	13
Suppression of the Cosmic Angelology of Archaic Surahs	19
The Quranic tyr as Birds, Fates, and Stars	30
Tayran 'abābila Sent by the Lord to Carry Devouring Judgment to the Wicked	32
The Maccabean Repetition of Q 105—An Apocalyptic Anti-Sasanian Reminder	35
Reading Early Surahs as Apocalyptic Warnings of Imminent Anti-Sasanian Judgment	42
Chapter 2. Al-Ṣamad of Sūrat al-Iḥlāṣ (Q 112)	79
Text and Translation of Sūrat al-Iḥlāṣ	80
The Scholarly Dispute over Al-Ṣamad	80
Problems with a 'Pure Arabic' Interpretation of Al-Ṣamad	82
Two Early Greek Translations of Ṣamad —Rare Greek Terms that Follow the Syriac Sense of 'Joined Together into a Unity'	84
The Message of Q 112 and the Problems of Prophetic Creationism	86
Interpreting Q 112 in a Context of Generalized Soteriological Innovation	88
Chapter 3. On the Genealogy of the Rasūl Function: From Eschatological Descent of the Astral Messenger to the Devotional Ascent of the Earthly Messenger	109
Basic Monotheisms of Late Antiquity and the Quranic Progression towards Stricter Monotheism	109
The Revelation Theology of Early Syriac Christianity—The One God Who Reveals Himself as Many Forms in Our Lower World	113
God's Rūh in the Qur'ān—A Descending Entity that Confers the Lord's Authority on his Human Servant in Connection with an ' Amr	115
Quranic Revelation Theology: An Intensifying Conflict over Revelatory Authority	117

Evolution of the Messenger Function—From Anonymous Angelic Apocalypse to a Charismatic Human Prophet with Messianic Authority	120
Q 86 and the Piercing Star that Forges the Cosmic Path	123
Q 81 and God’s Astral Rasūl — The Cosmic Messenger	126
Q 53—Two Theophanic Descents of the Lord to his Apostolic Slave	138
Q 73 and 74—The Human Rasūl , Wrapped in Divinizing Ethical Purity, Stands into his Lord’s Presence	144
Q 69:40—The Word of the Noble Rasūl , Not the Speech of a Human Poet or Priest, but the Noble Rasūl Is Implicitly the Human Servant	146
Q 68—The Human Servant Is a Great Creation, Opposed by Those Who Compromise the Truth Because of Their Worldly Ambition	148
Q 17:79–81—A Human Rasūl Hopes to Assume his Mahmūd Position Near the Lord, When He Will Stand into Sacred Space and Return as a Prophet with a Spirit of Messianic Authority	149
Chapter 4. Sūrat al-Qadr (Q 97): Celebrating the Celestial Savior’s Descent and Refuting Christian Communal Ritual	171
Text and Translation of Sūrat al-Qadr	172
The Scholarly Dispute about Sūrat al-Qadr	172
Two Manichaean Jesuses: Jesus the Luminous (Nocturnal Savior of Mankind) and the Historical Jesus of Nazareth (A Prior Prophet, Lesser than Mani)	175
Analysis of Sūrat al-Qadr	177
The Manichaean Bēma Vigil—Like Christmas, but with More Mani	200
The ‘Second Meccan’ Assertion of a Charismatic Human Rasūl Who Receives Quranic Revelation and a Spirit of Authority by his Devotional Ascent, Suppressing the Descending Astral Rasūl	202

Chapter 5. Opening and Pouring-Out the Warner: Sūrat al-Šarḥ (Q 94) and the Construction of Quranic Prophetology	215
Text and Translation of Sūrat al-Šarḥ	217
Islamic Exegesis of Sūrat al-Šarḥ	219
Modern Scholarship on Q 94—Birkeland and The Lord Guideth	219
Analysis of Q 94:1–4—The Dual Character of the Warner's Prophetic Gifts	221
Analysis of Q 94:5–8—God's Servant Purifies his Self by Sacrificing his Worldly Desires, in Complete Obedience to the Lord's Command, Which Enables Him to Stand Before his Lord with Single-Minded Love	233
The Basal Quranic Replacement of Prophetic Personality with Legitimation by a Messenger's Divine Speech	248
A Basal Soteriological Generalization of Late-Antique Monotheism—The Pre-Quranic Milieu (Non-Prophetic)	249
Secondary Innovation in Revelation Theology—Divine Speech (Anti-Prophetic)	250
Tertiary Introduction of Charismatic Prophetic Function (Neo-Prophetic)	254
Chapter 6. A Servant Wrapped in Glory: The Counter-Baptism of Sūrat al-Muddattir and Sūrat al-Muzzammil (Q 73 and 74)	273
Text and Translation of Q 73:1–10 and Q 74:1–10	275
Traditional Islamic Exegesis of the Clothing Language of Q 73 and 74	278
Modern Scholarship Regarding the Clothing Language of Q 73 and 74	279
Syriac Christian Clothing Metaphors—Believers Become Divinized by Putting on the 'Robe of Glory/Praise,' Which Is Their Eschatological Garment	280
Putting on the 'Robe of Glory' by Ritual Baptism Glorifying the Self and Keeping the Robe of Glory Pure by Ethical Righteousness	282
	282

The Kenotic Encounter—The Elite Believer Enters his Lord’s Presence in Pre-Eschatological Time	284
The Basal Quranic Soteriology	287
Al-Muddattir and his Prophetic Commission (Q 74)	291
The Quranic Ruhbān —Monks or Bishops?	303
The Quranic Kāhin as Christian Priest and Polytheist Soothsayer	304
Al-Muzzammil and His Composition of the Quranic Verses (Q 73)	308
Postface—Chronology and Geography	335
Quranic Chronology	337
Quranic Sacred Geography	341
Works Cited	355
Index	371