

Contents

| | |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------|
| List of Figures | xiii |
| Acknowledgements | xv |
| Permissions | xvii |
| List of Abbreviations | xix |
| Introduction: We Are the Stories We Tell | 1 |
| 1 Critical Education for Critical Times | 5 |
| Education and Ideology | 6 |
| Education and Critical Consciousness | 7 |
| Dangerous Education for Dangerous Times: A Case for Critical Consciousness and Social Justice Education in the Early Years | 8 |
| Who Are the Children Living on the Street? | 10 |
| Why Research with Young Children Living on the Street? | 11 |
| Mumbai, India: The Research Context | 12 |
| India | 12 |
| Mumbai | 14 |
| Central Research Questions | 15 |

| | | |
|---|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----|
| | Transparency: The Researcher as a Human Instrument | 16 |
| | My Story | 17 |
| | The Importance of a Book on Critical Consciousness and Social Justice in the Early Years | 22 |
| | Book Structure | 22 |
| 2 | Theory for Knowing and Changing the System | 33 |
| | Critical Pedagogy: What Is It? Where Did It Come From? | 33 |
| | Critical Pedagogy and the Purpose of Education | 36 |
| | Knowing the System | 36 |
| | Characteristics of Critical Pedagogy | 37 |
| | Education Is Political | 38 |
| | Ideology | 39 |
| | Hegemony | 40 |
| | Historicity of Knowledge | 41 |
| | Regimes of Truth | 42 |
| | Micropractices of Power | 43 |
| | Developmentally Appropriate Practices | 44 |
| | Political Economy | 45 |
| | Culture, Race and Gender | 47 |
| | Changing the System | 49 |
| | Resistance and Counter-hegemonic Discourses | 50 |
| | Resistance Theory | 50 |
| | Critiques of Resistance Theory | 53 |
| | Ideological Critique | 54 |
| | Critical Consciousness | 55 |
| | Praxis | 55 |
| | Dialogue and Problem-Posing Education | 55 |
| | Repositioning | 56 |
| | Critiques of Critical Pedagogy | 56 |
| | Justifying the Use of Critical Pedagogy to the Research | |
| | Reported on in This Book | 58 |
| | Critical Pedagogy and the Indian Context | 60 |
| | Conclusion | 64 |
| 3 | Critical Consciousness and Social Justice in Early Childhood | 73 |
| | Literature Review Search Methods and Inclusion Criteria | 74 |
| | Understanding Critical Consciousness | 75 |

| | | |
|---|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| | Understanding Social Justice | 76 |
| | Critical Social Justice | 77 |
| | Interconnected Understandings: Social Justice and Critical Consciousness | 78 |
| | Education for Critical Consciousness | 79 |
| | Community-Based Approaches to Developing Critical Consciousness | 79 |
| | Adult Education for Critical Consciousness | 84 |
| | Research with Pre-service Teachers | 84 |
| | Research with Teachers | 89 |
| | Critical Consciousness for Education with Children | 93 |
| | Early Childhood Contexts | 94 |
| | Gaps in the Literature and the Current Study | 97 |
| | Conclusion | 99 |
| 4 | Researching with Young Children Living on the Streets | 109 |
| | The Mosaic Approach | 111 |
| | Pieces of the Mosaic | 112 |
| | Critiques of the Mosaic Approach | 113 |
| | Using the Mosaic Approach in this Study | 114 |
| | Ethical Considerations | 115 |
| | Informed Consent | 116 |
| | Power Relations and Imbalances | 117 |
| | Sensitive Information, Confidentiality and Privacy | 118 |
| | Research Context: The Centre and the Streets | 119 |
| | Participant Selection and Recruitment | 121 |
| | Participants | 121 |
| | Data Collection | 122 |
| | Observations and Field Notes | 123 |
| | Dialogue and Informal Conversation | 124 |
| | Drawing and Storytelling | 125 |
| | Child-Led Photography and Tours | 126 |
| | Data Analysis | 129 |
| | Rigour and Credibility | 130 |
| | Triangulation | 130 |
| | Reflexivity | 131 |
| | Voice and Collaboration | 131 |
| | Prolonged Engagement in the Field | 132 |

| | | |
|---|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| | Limitations | 133 |
| | Conclusion | 135 |
| 5 | The Indian Context | 143 |
| | Why Is a Chapter on the Indian Context Necessary? | 143 |
| | Framing the Historical Analysis | 144 |
| | Colonisation | 145 |
| | Ideology | 149 |
| | Civil and Criminal Justice System | 151 |
| | Slavery | 151 |
| | Independence and the Partition | 154 |
| | Modern Republic of India | 157 |
| | Religion | 159 |
| | Hinduism and the Caste System | 160 |
| | Christianity in India | 161 |
| | Muslims in India | 162 |
| | Religious Riots and Terrorism | 163 |
| | Political and Socio-economic Structures | 165 |
| | Symbolic Violence and the Treatment of Women | 167 |
| | Female Infanticide | 168 |
| | Child Marriage | 168 |
| | Educational Inequality and Exclusion on the Basis of Gender | 170 |
| | Education Systems in India | 171 |
| | Early Childhood Provisions | 171 |
| | Primary School Systems | 172 |
| | Mumbai | 175 |
| | Children Living on the Streets in Mumbai | 176 |
| | Prevalence | 176 |
| | Causes | 177 |
| | Education | 178 |
| | Economic Activity | 179 |
| | Challenges | 180 |
| | Support Mechanisms | 182 |
| | Re-meeting the Complex Interplay of History, Economics, Politics and Society: Educational Contexts, Children Living on the Streets and This Research | 183 |
| | Conclusion | 187 |

| | | |
|---|----------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| 6 | The Stories We Tell | 201 |
| | Using Resistance Theory | 201 |
| | Profile of Participants | 211 |
| | Akbar, Male, 7.5 Years Old | 211 |
| | Arav, Male, 4.5 Years Old | 212 |
| | Bhijali, Female, 3.5 Years Old | 213 |
| | Birbal, Male, 7 Years Old | 214 |
| | Krish, Male, 4.5 Years Old | 215 |
| | Payal, Female, 5 Years Old | 216 |
| | Rani, Female, 7 Years Old | 216 |
| | Rathore, Male, 8 Years Old | 218 |
| | Sonakshi, Female, 4 Years Old | 219 |
| | Tara, Female, 4.5 Years Old | 220 |
| | Children's Lived Experiences and Perspectives | 221 |
| | Conformist Resistance | 221 |
| | Learning English | 222 |
| | Belief in the System of Education | 224 |
| | Care-Taking | 226 |
| | Self-defeating Resistance | 230 |
| | Apathy and Self-soothing | 230 |
| | Self-deprecating and Destructive Behaviours | 232 |
| | Systematic Understanding and Critique | 236 |
| | Obedience and Underlife | 240 |
| | Transformative Resistance | 243 |
| | Aspirations and Plans to 'Be Someone' | 244 |
| | Creative Problem Solving | 245 |
| | Ensuring Fairness | 247 |
| | Speaking Out | 248 |
| | Helping and Teaching Others Social Justice | 249 |
| | Dignity Work | 251 |
| | Conclusion | 254 |
| 7 | Resistance for Social Justice and Critical Consciousness | 259 |
| | Language Hierarchies, Neoliberal and Developmental | |
| | Discourses: Divide and Rule | 260 |
| | Language Hierarchies and Neoliberal Discourses | 260 |
| | Developmental Discourses and Micropractices of Power | 264 |

| | | |
|---|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| | Resistant Behaviour as Communication | 266 |
| | Resistance as a Communication of Self-defence and Agency | 266 |
| | Resistance as a Communication of the Desire for Social Justice and Listening | 268 |
| | Underlife Resistance, Dignity and the Pedagogy of Indignation | 271 |
| | Policy Implications | 274 |
| | Research Implications | 277 |
| | Practice Implications | 278 |
| | Limitations and Further Research Suggestions | 280 |
| | Conclusion | 282 |
| 8 | Summary: If Gandhi was a Child in Your Classroom | 291 |