

CONTENTS

	Acknowledgements	vii
	Introduction	ix
Section I	The Agency as a Learning Environment	1
Chapter 1.	The Agency as a Place for Learning	3
Chapter 2.	Linking The Agency to the Curriculum	23
Chapter 3.	Building a Place for Learning	35
Chapter 4.	Engaging Students for Learning	49
Chapter 5.	Mentoring and the Student-Run Agency	71
Chapter 6.	Expanding Learning Opportunities with Graduate Teaching Assistants	83
Chapter 7.	Assessment of Learning in the Student Agency	91
Chapter 8.	The Student-Run Agency and Accreditation	113
Section II	The Agency as a Business	131
Chapter 9.	Establishing a Business Within the Academic Environment	133
Chapter 10.	Dissent Within the Ranks	149
Chapter 11.	Establishing a Firm Foundation	165

Chapter 12. To Charge, or Not to Charge – That is the Question	181
Chapter 13. Recruiting and Retaining Quality Clients	191
Chapter 14. Promoting the Agency and its Successes	209
Section III The Agency as a Community Resource	223
Chapter 15. Relationships with Area Professionals	225
Chapter 16. Working with Area Nonprofits	237
Chapter 17. Honoring Diversity and Inclusiveness	247
Directory of University Student-Run Communications Agencies	261
Agency Spotlight Contributors	287
Index	293