

Contents

1 Introduction	11
-----------------------------	-----------

Part I: On the Justice of Just War

2 Sovereignty and Justice: Life, Way of Life, Naked Life	27
Sovereignty and Governmentality	29
How Does Life Dwell in the State? Agamben with Carl Schmitt and Michel Foucault	32
Structure of Analysis	38
3 The Specters of Just and Unjust Wars	41
Just and Unjust Wars: Analytical Points	48
Authority and Potency: Community and Government, Revolution and Resistance	48
Zoé and Bios	56
The Sacrificial Animal: Recognizing the Cattle, Apprehending the Hare	58
Historical Illustrations and Moral Examples: the Fictions of Sovereignty	65
The Knightly Duel	66
Guerilla Warfare and Resistance	67
Emergency and Evil	69
Just and Unjust Wars: General Summary	71

Part II: Justification and Political Myth

4 The Myths of the Ancients	79
Some Notes on the Reading of Plato and Aristotle	83

The Platonic Suspicion	85
Platonic Images	88
The Platonic City	92
Myth and History: Aristotle's Poetics	96
Imagination, Fantasy and Political Theology	98
 5 The Myth of the Social Contract	 103
Imagination and Memory	104
Leviathan	107
Enlightenment and Romanticism	112
 6 Cognition and Pan-Mythic Theories	 119
Myth and Ideology	123
 7 Trauma, Memory and Myth	 131
Returning to Freud	139
 Conclusion	 145
 Bibliography	 151