

6 THOMAS KÖHLER
Magyar Modern
Foreword and Acknowledgements

8 LÁSZLÓ BAÁN
Hungarian Art in Berlin 1910–1933
Foreword and Acknowledgements

10 RALF BURMEISTER
“One Great Test Site”: An Introduction

---

A Portrait Gallery of Hungarian Artists 18

---

24 ANDRÁS ZWICKL
“Hungarians Everywhere”.
Contacts, Friendships, Teamwork

34 TIBOR FRANK
From Budapest to Berlin:
Thoughts on Cultural Relations
from 1910 to 1933

---

I Berlin Debut 40

---

50 ANIKÓ KATONA
Innovative Poster Art for the Republic of Councils

---

II Revolutions / Emigration 56

---

66 MERSE PÁL SZEREDI
Networking the International Avant Garde. Lajos Kassák and his Magazine Ma in Budapest and Vienna

---

III Ma and Avant-Garde Networking 72

---

86 MARIANN GERGELY
Hungarian Artists in Der Sturm
in the 1920s

92 OLIVER A. I. BOTÁR
Berlin – Moholy Nagy – Berlin

---

IV Hungarians at the Sturm 100

---

124 WOLFGANG SCHÖDDERT
Vision and Market. Gallery Owner
Ferdinand Möller and his Hungarian Modernist Connections

132 MONIKA WUCHER
Country of Origin: Art
Ernst Kállai

---

V Satellites 140

---

160 NILS PHILIPPI
From Image to Concrete. Picture-Architecture in Berlin's Hungarian Constructivism

---

VI Picture – Concrete – Architecture 166

---

176 MICHAEL BIENERT
Building for the Needs of the Time. Architects Oskar Kaufmann, Marcel Breuer, Fred Forbát and Modern Berlin

---

VII Urban Design 184

---

202 ANTONIA WOLFF
Press Photos and Neues Sehen.
Hungarian Exiles Turn Their Cameras on Berlin

210 MÁRTON OROSZ
The Hungarian Contribution to
Avant-Garde Film in the Weimar
Republic

---

VIII Photography and Film 218

---

238 ÉVA FORGÁCS
Alfred Kemény and the Hungarian Political Left in Berlin
Art during the Early 1920s

---

IX Moving on from Berlin 244

---

Exhibited Works
Bibliography
The Authors

254
262
268

Acknowledgements
Picture Credits
Colophon

270
271
272