

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Acknowledgments 7

1. An Iridescent Approach to Petroleum and Modernity 11

- 1.1 Urban Visual Culture 18
- 1.2 Petro-Modernity 22
- 1.3 Modernization and Urban Transformation 30

2. A (Pre-)Oil History of Kuwait 39

- 2.1 Kuwait's Pre-Oil History 40
- 2.2 Oil Industrialization in Kuwait and the Persian Gulf 46
- 2.3 Petro-States and the "Kuwaiti Model" 51
- 2.4 Pre-Oil Architecture and Visual Culture: An Inventory 57
- 2.5 As Petro-Modernity Unfolds, Urban Visual Culture Is Fueled 65

3. Imag(in)ing Kuwait from Above in Aerial Photography, Urban Planning, and Cartography 69

- 3.1 Visualizing Kuwait in Aerial Photography 70
- 3.2 Envisioning Kuwait in Urban Planning 79
- 3.3 Representational Ambiguities 94
- 3.4 An Aerial View of the Petroleum Playground 108

4. The Kuwait Oil Company, (Color) Photography, and Iridescent Impressions 113

- 4.1 Oil Company Photography 114
- 4.2 The Story of Kuwait: Making the Desert Bloom 119
- 4.3 Persuasion and Ambiguity in Color 129
- 4.4 Exhibiting Kuwait Beyond the Oil Company's Sphere 150
- 4.5 Color Photography Showcases Petro-Modernity as Iridescence 154

5. The Petro-State, Its Postage Stamps, and Political Iconography 157

- 5.1 Kuwait's Image-World on the Cover of the Government Gazette 159
- 5.2 Decolonizing Postal Communication 163
- 5.3 The First Set of Kuwaiti Postage Pictures 166
- 5.4 Oil Stamps for Petro-States 181
- 5.5 Absences in the Pictures of Development 194
- 5.6 Political Displays Beyond the Oil Stamps 197

6. The 1990–91 Gulf War: Oil Fires, Ecological Catastrophe, and a Second Rupture 2017. The Petroleum Promise, Nostalgia, and Futurism 215

- 7.1 Deconstructing Nostalgia in Contemporary Art 219
- 7.2 Architecture as Alternative History 225
- 7.3 Gulf Futurism 230
- 7.4 Monumentalizing Petro-Modernity Through Iridescence 233

Bibliography 241Image Credits 259