

10

Invitation to Read, Call to See

Adam Szymczyk

18

Judge Lynch in Europe

Milena Jesenská

30

A Monologue for Claude Lanzmann

Joanna Tokarska-Bakir

52

The Negro and the Warsaw Ghetto

W. E. B. Du Bois

62

Distancing from Participation: If Auschwitz

Were in Switzerland – On Not Acknowledging Historical Guilt
and the Long Slumber of the Self-Righteous

Adolf Muschg

74

The Spectres of Comparison: On the Mbembe Affair

Michael Rothberg

84

Run Baby Run. Run Like the Wind.

Memory Is the Most Unusual Thing.

Bonaventure Soh Bejeng Ndikung

92

We Cannot Escape Our Own History

Jan Tomasz Gross

104

Reactions, Discussions and Disputes:

Polish Controversies Over the Shoah

Dariusz Stola

124

Formlessness Versus Formalisation:

Towards a Post-National Culture

of Remembrance

Noit Banai

158

It Looks Gloomy Up Close

Piotr Forecki

172

A Summons to See: It Looks Pretty from a Distance

Luiza Nader

200

Biographies

208

Text Credits

212

Illustration Credits

218

Colophon