

Contents

Foreword	V
BERND ROLING Introduction.	1
BERNHARD SCHIRG Phoenix going Bananas. The Swedish Appropriation of a Classical Myth, and its Demise in Botanical Scholarship (Engelbert Kaempfer, Carl Linnaeus).	17
STEFAN HEINRICH BAUHAUS Olof Rudbeck the Younger's Oförgripelige tankar om amerikanska språket	47
PETER SJÖKVIST Petrus Lagerlöf Instructing on Gothicism.	63
ANNIE BURMAN Language Comparison before Comparative Linguistics: Theories of Language Change and Classification in Olof Rudbeck's Atlantica	77
OUTI MERISALO »Musta minä muiden nähden / walkia oman emännän, id est niger ego aliis, candidus propriae uxori videor«. Daniel Juslenius zur finnischen Kulturgeschichte	95
VERA JOHANTERWAGE She »lät illa i sömnen«!? How Eric Julius Björner can still be read with profit – and even delight	107
CHRISTIAN PETERS Ablaze in the Northern Sky: Tears of Amber and the Relocation of Ovidian Myth to the Baltic Sea.	137

SOFIA GUTHRIE
Goths, Gauls and Franks in Antoine Garissoles’ Adolphid (1649):
How to rewrite the ancient history of Sweden 175

BENJAMIN HÜBBE
The Fauna of Fallen Babylon – Carl Aurivillius on the Animals in Isaiah 13:21 and the Task of Bible Hermeneutics 187

BERND ROLING
Rudbeck and Oriental Studies: How Sanscrit studies transformed national myth 221

Index 243