

Foreword	7
I. LIVING	10
This is Tomorrow 1956. The Future Is Already Underway Sebastiano Roveroni	18
London 1972 (and its Surroundings). Modern Architecture Reviewed by History Michela Rosso	36
The Robin Hood Gardens. Model or Failure? Andrea Ronzino	50
Whatever Happened to People? Re-inhabiting the City Luca Reale	64
HOUSES BY DANILO TROGU	84
II. INHABITANTS	104
Into the Wild. How to Live Alone as a Student/Worker once Away from the Family Home Marson Korbi	112
Home Staging as a Practice Enabling Commodification Federico Coricelli, Chiara Iacovone	130
Living in L'Aquila after the 2009 Earthquake. Forms and Practices of Space Marina Ciampi, Anna Maria Paola Toti	144
Squatting in Italian and European Law Elena Bargelli	168

HOUSES BY MICHELE DE LUCCHI	184
-----------------------------	-----

III. HOUSES	204
-------------	-----

Housing Datascape between European and African Urbanisation Dunia Mittner	214
--	-----

New Haven 1966. When Howard, Berengaria, and Ethel Blew up Moore House Manuel Carmona, Barbara Pierpaoli	236
---	-----

The Bushy Houses by Guy Rottier Antonio di Campli	256
---	-----

Faut-il être (encore) absolument moderne? Giovanni Corbellini	274
---	-----

Authors	301
Acknowledgments and Credits	302