Contents

Acknowledgments — XI

Preface — XVII

Introduction — XXI

Part I: A stronghold

Chapter 1
Burnout matters — 3
Burnout as a global phenomenon — 3
You can count the costs — 4
Nobody is immune to burnout — 5
Burnout is an organizational problem — 6
The casualties of burnout — 7
Managing burnout requires leadership — 9

Chapter 2
Why we work – in general and in organizations — 11
Wake, work, sleep, and repeat — 11
Division of labor and productivity — 12
Everyone wants meaningful work — 13
Organizations need motivated employees — 14
Motivating the masses — 17

Chapter 3
Your work environment and well-being — 19
The surroundings tell the story — 20
A focus on what is positive and effective — 21
Key characteristics of the work environment — 25
Job demands — 25
Job resources — 26
Organizational support — 27
The dynamic work environment — 27
Current realities — 28
Span of control — 37

Bibliografische Informationen
https://d-nb.info/1250853249

digitalisiert durch DEUTSCHE NATIONAL BIBLIOTHEK

Part II: A trench and the oasis

Chapter 4
Burnout – the making of a concept — 41
The three dimensions of burnout — 41
What burnout is not — 43
The causes and consequences of burnout — 43
What every leader and manager needs to know — 46
So, what next? — 46

Chapter 5
Work engagement — 47
A most desirable state — 47
The causes and consequences of work engagement — 49
An essential focus for organizations — 51
From an individual focus to your team's work engagement — 51
So, what next? — 53

Part III: Minding the gap

Chapter 6
Shifting from burnout to engagement — 57
The Organization-Job-Personal (OJP) framework — 57
Three steps — 60

Chapter 7
Step 1 – Assess — 63
Bringing it all together — 69

Chapter 8
Step 2 – Acknowledge — 70
Ideating strategies — 72
OJP potential strategies and solutions — 75
Bringing it all together — 77

Chapter 9
Step 3 – Act — 78
Brick by brick, build a plan — 79
Assess, acknowledge, act, and repeat — 81
Keep the flame burning — 84
Bringing it all together — 84

Chapter 10
Self-audit, self-care, and self-compassion — 85
Support tools — 87

Afterword — 91

Endnotes — 93

Appendix I
The Organization-Job-Personal (OJP) framework — 101

Appendix II
Work environment assessment — 102

Appendix III
Leader assessment analysis form — 103

Appendix IV
Acknowledge – guiding questions table — 104

Appendix V
OJP strategy chart — 105

Appendix VI
OJP potential strategies and solutions chart — 106

Appendix VII
Timeframe — 124

Appendix VIII
Fired Up! Action Plan — 126

Appendix IX
Self-care BINGO card — 127

Appendix X
Create-Your-Own BINGO card — 128

Appendix XI
Guiding questions for training and facilitation — 129

Appendix XII
Resources — 131

List of figures — 133

List of tables — 135

Further reading — 137

About the authors — 151

Index — 153