

Contents

1	Introduction	1
1.1	Role and Importance of Youth Legislation	2
1.2	History of German Youth Welfare Law	2
1.3	Assistance for a Better Understanding of These Social Laws	3
2	Principles, Structures, Tasks, Courts	7
2.1	How Do I Claim My Right?	8
2.2	Legal Claim and Discretion	9
2.3	Subordination	10
2.4	Cooperation, Participation	10
2.5	Authorities and Other Points of Contact	11
2.6	Youth Law: Structure and Relevance of the Chapters	13
3	Youth (Social) Work, Youth Protection, Educational Promotion	15
3.1	Youth Work, Youth Social Work	15
3.2	Youth Protection	16
3.3	Promotion of Education in the Family	18
4	The Educational Services	21
4.1	Foster Care	21
4.1.1	Full-Time Care	22
4.1.2	Partial Stationary Aids	23
4.1.3	Closed Placement	23
4.1.4	A Wild, Confused “Case 1”	24

4.2	Qualified Outpatient Services	24
4.2.1	Parental Counseling Centers	25
4.2.2	Family Support and Individual Care	25
4.2.3	Social Group Work According to § 29	26
5	Therapy for Mental Disorders; Help also for Young Adults	29
5.1	Integration Assistance in Youth Welfare is Given to a Child Who Has Mental Disorders	29
5.2	Fortunately, People Over the Age of 17 Can Also Receive Youth Welfare	31
5.2.1	Financial Problems and Perspectives	32
6	Child Protection Issues	33
6.1	Basics of Child Protection Regulations in Germany	33
6.1.1	“Case 2”	35
6.2	To the “Insofar Experienced Professional” (Child Protection)	36
7	Daycare and Childcare	39
7.1	Positions of the Federal Law SGB VIII, §§ 22–26	39
7.2	Daycare	42
7.2.1	A Mother-Child “Case (3)”	42
7.3	Daycare; Self-Organization of Care	43
7.4	Implementation Laws of the 16 Federal States	43
7.5	The After-school care Problem	44
8	Other Tasks, Cooperation, Planning	47
8.1	Participation in Family and Youth Courts	47
8.2	(Official) Guardianships	48
8.3	What Does “Triangle Relationship” Mean?	49
8.4	Youth Welfare Planning, §-78-Working Groups	50
8.5	The Youth Office Consists of Two Instances	51
9	Other Important Laws in Juvenile Law and “Confidentiality”	53
9.1	Youth Criminal Law in the JGG	53
9.2	The Family Court Act FamFG	54
9.3	The Cooperation and Information Act in Child Protection	56
9.4	Youth Labor Protection Act/Ordinance on Child Labor	56
9.5	The “Good” Early Childhood Education and Participation Act	58

9.6	Law on Religious Education of Children RelKERzG	58
9.7	Penal Code and Code of Criminal Procedure	59
10	Perspectives and Positions on Inclusion, Gender
	Diversity and Gender Mainstreaming	61
10.1	Inclusion in Child and Youth Welfare	61
10.2	Gender Diversity and Gender Mainstreaming — Approaches in the Language Regulations of the BMFSFJ	63
	Journals and Other Periodicals	67