

Table of contents

Ute Fendler & Doris Löhr
African Studies Centres Around the World – A Network-Based Inventory	7
Akintúndé Akínyémí
Gazing into the Past to Transform the Future – Fifty Years of Teaching and Research on African Studies at the University of Florida	15
Aparajita Biswas
African Studies in India: Evolution and Challenges	37
Rina Cáceres
Decolonizing Images and Representations about Africa and Its Descendants – The Case of Central America and Costa Rica	59
Yongkyu Chang
The History of African Studies in Korea – Forty Years of Its Academic Development	81
Marta E. Cordiés Jackson
The African Presence in the Caribbean: Some Considerations	101
John H. Hanson
The African Studies Program at Indiana University Bloomington (USA)	115
Lungisile Ntsebeza
African Studies at UCT: An Overview	125
Livio Sansone
Challenges and New Possibilities – African Studies in Brazil and the South-South Connection	145
José da Silva Horta / Carlos Almeida
Historicity: The Primacy of Contexts, Connections, and Networks – The Case of the International Project “African Ivories in the Atlantic World”	161

Petr Skalník
African Studies in East-Central Europe	181
Céline Thiriot
Is there a French Touch to African Studies?	195
About the Contributors	215