

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Preface	VII
1. Hobbes, his Leviathan , its frontispiece	1
a. Envisaging the “body politic”	2
b. Why “Leviathan”? Hobbes on the terror-wielding state	8
c. The 1651 frontispiece: adaptations and approximations	11
d. Leviathan in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries	18
2. The authorship of the Leviathan frontispiece	23
a. The case for Wenceslaus Hollar	24
b. The frontispiece in its drawn version	28
c. The case for Abraham Bosse	32
d. The tactical portrait	41
3. The “Artificiall Man”	45
a. Art(ifice) imitates Nature	45
b. The automaton	49
c. A “Mortall God”	52
d. Of memory and imagination	56
4. Qualities and appearances	61
a. Colossal	61
b. Composite	66
c. Magnification, distortion, resolution	74
d. Extending the metaphor	80

5. "Mastering" time	83
a. Temporal aberration: its denial and its reversal	83
b. Surviving death: the "cadaver tomb" and the funeral effigy	87
c. "A breathing Statue": from precarious instant to perilous continuum	93
d. Time in the Leviathan frontispiece	97
6. Endurance: the "Common-Wealth" as bulwark, constraint, aspiration	101
a. Ex nihilo	102
b. "Certain Rules"	104
c. Speech and rhetoric	106
d. A "visible Power to keep them in awe"	108
Appendix I: Excerpts from Leviathan	113
Appendix II: Images and Portraits	121
Images in other works by Thomas Hobbes	123
Catalogue of Images	155
Portraits of Thomas Hobbes	193
Catalogue of Portraits	215
Appendix III	239
Bibliography	241
Index	267
Picture credits	281