

1. Die Personen 6
2. Der Inhalt 8
3. The author 9
4. Vorüberlegungen zum Einsatz des Dramas im Unterricht 11
5. Klausuren 13
6. Konzeption des Unterrichtsmodells 22
7. Components 24
8. Weiterführende Materialien 90

Component 1: Two worlds collide 24

- 1.1 The arrival of Blanche at her sister's place 24
 - Copy 1: Stanley 30
- 1.2 Suspicion, smugness and sheepishness 32
 - Copy 2: A chronology 33
 - Copy 3: Stanley's suspicions and Stella's excuses 36
 - Copy 4: Completion of sentences 37

Component 2: Domestic violence and hope for a better future 42

- 2.1 The poker night and its implications 42
 - Copy 5: Van Gogh's painting The Night Café in the Place Lamartine in Arles 44
- 2.2 The function of men in Blanche's life (scene 5) 48
- 2.3 The rendezvous (scene 6) 51
 - Copy 6: The atmosphere between Blanche and Mitch 53
 - Copy 7: Quotations (scenes 7 and 8) 58

Component 3: Humiliation, violation and dignity 59

- 3.1 Revelations and reactions (scenes 7 and 8) 59
- 3.2 Booze, rape and the start of Blanche's disintegration (scenes 9 and 10) 63
 - Copy 8: Scene 11 67
- 3.3 Committal to a mental hospital 66
 - Copy 9: Various incidents and their deeper meaning 70

Component 4: Film Analysis 75

- 4.1 Reflections on the qualities and necessities of a film version of A Streetcar Named Desire 77
 - Copy 10: The movie vs the drama 79
- 4.2 Modifications made to the original script because of censorship 81
- 4.3 Watching the complete movie 84
 - 4.3.1 Four tell-tale scenes 84
 - Copy 11: Four tell-tale scenes 85
 - 4.3.2 More details and striking differences 86
 - Copy 12: Further differences and evaluation 87