

Contents

Abbreviations	xi
Introduction	1
Summary of the 'little Aeneid ' (Ovid, Met. 13.623-14.582)	16
 Chapter One Aeneads and Aniads: Offering Politics and the Politics of Offerings, or Narrative Discourse on Anius' Crater (Met. 13.681-701)
1. Introduction	19
2. The Ekphrasis, its Text and Context	20
3. The Theban Connection	26
4. The Aesculapius Parallel	32
 Chapter Two Immortality and Mutability: The Sibyl and the Power of Poetic Memory
1. Introduction	43
2. The Sibyl and Aeneas	46
3. The Sibyl and Rome	52
4. The Sibyl and Poetic Memory	60
5. The Sibyl's Echo	70
 Chapter Three Centralizing the Marginal: The Anamorphosis of Achaemenides
1. Introduction	75
2. Achaemenides' Literary Identity	79
3. The Dynamics of Hypertextuality	83
4. Performance and Metadiegesis	92
5. Metapoetics and Cultural Poetics	96
6. Spectator and Observer	98
7. Auctor and Actor	107

*Chapter Four Marginalizing the Central:
Macareus Anamnesis*

1. Introduction	113
2. The Plight of Picus and the Quest for Dido	114
3. Looking for Dido	117
4. Picus' Plight: Torn Between Heaven and Hell	127
5. An Addendum	139

*Chapter Five Experimentation on a Narrative Chain I:
Poetology, Epic Definition, and the Near-Swans of Diomedes*

1. Introduction.	143
2. Vergil's Diomedes and Ethics	145
3. Ovid's Diomedes and Metapoetics.	146
4. The Avian Metamorphosis Context.	149
5. The Near-Swans of Diomedes and the Swan-Chain	152
6. Swan Poetics and Epic Succession	157

*Chapter Six Experimentation on a Narrative Chain II:
Vergilian Ships and Ovidian Nymphs, and a Play of Literary Identities*

1. Introduction.	167
2. The Transformed Nymphs and Diomedes	169
3. The Attachment to Ardea	180

*Chapter Seven Epic Conclusion and Epic Closure:
The Fall of Ardea*

Epic Conclusion and Epic Closure: The Fall of Ardea.	187
--	-----

Bibliography	199
-------------------------------	-----

Indexes	209
--------------------------	-----