

Table of Contents

Acknowledgments — VII

1	Introduction — 1
1.1	The reception of Wolffian philosophy — 1
1.2	Wolff's Oeconomica in the literary context — 6
1.3	Research question and methodology — 10
2	The hallmarks of Wolffian philosophy — 15
2.1	Introduction — 15
2.2	Wolff's scientific method — 19
2.2.1	Wolff's method in context — 19
2.2.2	Demonstrative morality — 26
2.3	Wolff's philosophical system — 33
2.3.1	The concept of system in context — 33
2.3.2	Wolff's system in practice — 38
2.4	Wolff's natural law — 46
2.4.1	Wolffian natural law in the historical context — 46
2.4.2	Natural law as a theoretical foundation for moral philosophy — 52
2.5	Summary — 59
3	A contextual reading of the Oeconomica methodo scientifica pertractata — 61
3.1	Introduction — 61
3.2	Oeconomica – methodo scientifica pertractata — 64
3.2.1	Truth, non-contradiction and household wisdom — 64
3.2.2	A house built on sufficient reasons — 69
3.2.3	Sources of knowledge in the Oeconomica – empirical, rational, practical — 75
3.3	Oeconomica in the philosophical system — 80
3.3.1	Crosspollination in the systema doctrinarum — 80
3.3.2	The household as a structural liability — 86
3.4	Natural law in the Oeconomica — 91
3.4.1	A contractual reading of family life — 91
3.4.2	Reconciling reason and religion — 95
3.4.3	Natural law beyond the home turf — 100
3.5	Summary — 104

4	Oeconomica, natural law and social welfare in the absolutist state — 107
4.1	Introduction — 107
4.2	The theoretical foundation of social welfare in Wolff's natural law — 110
4.2.1	The contract as a legitimising fiction — 110
4.2.2	Patrimonial welfare: moral duty with an ulterior motive — 115
4.3	State education in philosophy and reality — 118
4.3.1	Non scholae sed vitae – pedagogy in education — 118
4.3.2	Universities: theory in practice — 125
4.4	Preserving prosperity, providing for the poor — 130
4.4.1	Economic sustainability in the household — 130
4.4.2	The case for state-managed poor relief — 137
4.5	Public Health — 143
4.5.1	Keeping the healthy healthy — 143
4.5.2	A priori medicine contra institutional innovation — 149
4.6	Summary — 154
5	Michael Hanov's completion of the Wolffian system — 157
5.1	Introduction — 157
5.2	Hanov: From independent scholar to wavering Wolffian — 160
5.2.1	Hanov's intellectual background — 160
5.2.2	Congruences and dissonances between Hanov and Wolff — 166
5.3	Hanov's Oeconomica – method, system, natural law — 169
5.3.1	Method — 169
5.3.2	System — 173
5.3.3	Natural Law — 179
5.4	Hanov versus Wolff – political systems in comparison — 184
5.4.1	Legitimacy, power and levels of administration — 184
5.4.2	Social welfare programmes in contrast — 190
5.5	Summary — 197
6	Conclusion — 199
	Bibliography — 207