

Contents

Introduction	11
Three Spheres. Three Epochs. Three Ways	17
Antiquity	18
Middle Ages	19
Modernity	20
Reduction	22
Three Ways	25
The First Way: Hegel	29
Two Attitudes of Thought	30
Hegel's Attitude of Thought	33
The Three Spheres in Hegel's Philosophy	35
The Divine	36
The Natural-Worldly	38
The Human	39
Hegel and Rosenzweig	41
The Second Way: Nietzsche	47
Nietzsche's Irrationalism for Rosenzweig	49
Against Values and Hierarchies	50
Nietzsche and Hegel	54
The Three Spheres in Nietzsche's Philosophy	57
The Divine	58
The Natural-Worldly	60
The Human	61

Nietzsche and Rosenzweig	62
The Third Way: Rosenzweig	69
Rosenzweig Versus Idealism I: Elements	70
Beyond the Human	71
Beyond the Natural-Worldly	74
Beyond the Divine	75
Rosenzweig Versus Idealism II: Nothingness and Irrationality	77
Nothingness	78
Irrationality	81
Rosenzweig Versus Irrationalism	83
Trendelenburg	84
Kierkegaard	87
Nietzsche	90
Truth as Relation	92
Ex Negativo	93
Ex Positivo	95
Theory and Praxis	100
The Three Spheres in Rosenzweig's 'New Thinking'	103
The Divine	104
The Natural-Worldly	110
The Human	117
Between and Beyond Hegel and Nietzsche	135
The Three Paths in Rosenzweig's 'New Thinking'	139
Explicit References and Implicit Analogies	141
'Quod sit' and 'Quid sit' in Der Stern der Erlösung	149
Between God and World: The Path of Creation	154
The Creator: Divine Power	155

The Creature: Worldly Existence	158
Rosenzweig Versus Hegel: Creation Versus Production	161
Rosenzweig Versus Nietzsche: Creation Versus Eternal Return	165
A Keyword for Creation: 'Relational Otherness'	168
Between God and Human Being: The Path of Revelation	170
The Revealer: Divine Love	171
The Recipient of Revelation: Human Humility	174
Revelation as Cornerstone of Reality	177
Rosenzweig Versus Hegel: Revelation Versus Dialectical Logic	178
Rosenzweig Versus Nietzsche: Revelation Versus Disconnection	182
A Keyword for Revelation: 'Event'	184
Between Human Being and World: The Path of Redemption	186
The Agent of Redemption: Human Neighbor-Love	188
The Context of Redemption: Worldly Life	191
Redemption: Communality and Eternity	194
Rosenzweig Versus Hegel: Redemptive Praxis Versus Self-Reflection and Theory	196
Rosenzweig Versus Nietzsche: Redemptive Praxis Versus Gift-Giving Virtue	201
A Keyword for Redemption: 'Oriented Praxis'	203
Beyond Philosophy: The 'New Thinking' as Jewish	207
Creation: Relational Otherness – Bereshit 1	212
Revelation: Event – Shir ha-Shirim	215
Redemption: Oriented Praxis – Psalms 115 and Tiqqun	217
Final Remarks	221
A Third Way between Idealism and Irrationalism	221
A Third Way between Philosophy and Jewish Thought	227
'Otherness' in Philosophy and in Jewish Thought	228
'Event' in Philosophy and in Jewish Thought	230

‘Praxis’ in Philosophy and in Jewish Thought	232
Conclusion	236
Bibliography	239