

Contents

Introduction — 1

- 1 White-Collar Crime Convenience — 6
 - White-Collar Crime Offenders — 6
 - Executive Convenience Orientation — 8
 - Executive Convenience Themes — 10
 - Financial Possibilities and Threats — 11
 - Opportunity to Commit and Conceal — 12
 - Personal Willingness for Deviant Behavior — 15
 - Structural Model of Opportunity — 20
- 2 Corporate Executive Status — 26
 - Disclosure of Executive Language — 26
 - Removal of Powerful People — 27
 - Detection of Misleading Attribution — 29
 - Disregard of Offender Humor — 31
 - Correction of Power Inequality — 32
- 3 Access to Corporate Resources — 36
 - Restrictions on Access to Systems — 36
 - Disclosure of Entrepreneurialism — 38
 - Review of Specialized Access — 39
 - Limits to Strategic Resources — 39
- 4 Corporate Organizational Decay — 43
 - Transparency in Deterioration — 43
 - Replacement of Disorganization — 45
 - Detection of Crime Signals — 47
 - Transparency in Accounting — 49
 - Corporate Social Responsibility — 50
 - Sharing of Audit Reports — 56
 - Community Social Pressure — 57
- 5 Oversight and Guardianship — 61
 - Coordination of Principals and Agents — 61
 - Sensemaking of Executive Actions — 62
 - Protection of Whistleblowers — 63
 - Reduction in Ethical Climate Conflict — 65
 - Corporate Principal Agent Dynamics — 66

- 6 Markets and Networks — 70
 - Reduction in Rule Complexity — 70
 - Avoidance of Crime Networks — 71
 - Combat of Criminal Market Forces — 72
 - Victims of Cartel Crime Activities — 74

- 7 Corporate Case Studies — 78
 - Embezzlement by Chief Executive — 78
 - Accounting Fraud by Chairperson — 80
 - Corruption by University Coach — 84
 - Fraudulent Procurement by Executives — 88

- 8 Crime Service Professionals — 90
 - Law Firm Client Barriers — 90
 - Certified Accountant Control — 93
 - Auditor Denial of Acceptance — 95
 - Real Estate Agent Reporting — 97
 - Financial Services Detection — 99
 - Inter-Bank Borders Cooperation — 102
 - Professional Tax Crime Enablers — 107
 - Employees in Health Care Crime — 109
 - Public-Control Funding Agents — 110
 - Professional Crime Supporters — 111

- 9 Corporate Scandal Accounts — 118
 - Icelandic Samherji in Namibia — 119
 - Swedish Telia in Uzbekistan — 122
 - Swedish Lundin Energy in Sudan — 125
 - Wells Fargo in the United States — 129
 - Japanese Astellas in Europe — 132
 - Deloitte – EY – KPMG – PwC — 134
 - Comparison of Corporate Cases — 136

- 10 State-Corporate Crime — 148
 - Alignment of Mutual Interests — 149
 - The Regime of Public Permissions — 150
 - Modern Profitable Slavery — 152
 - State-Enabled Economic Crime — 154
 - Construction Industry Case — 156
 - Housing Market Bubble Case — 157
 - Industrial Fishing Piracy Case — 159
 - Gulf of Mexico Oil Spill Case — 160

Dynamic Symbiosis Processes —	162
Covid-19 Pandemic State Crime —	164
Bottom-Up Outside-In Control —	166
11 Responsibility Attribution —	170
Perspectives on Responsibility —	170
Empirical Attribution Study —	174
Fraud Investigation Reports —	175
Statistical Attribution Analysis —	184
Conclusion —	189
Bibliography —	193
Index —	223