

Contents

Acknowledgements — IX

Abbreviations — XI

Preface — XIII

Chapter One: Preliminary Matters: Context, Title, Structure, Author — 1

- I Context — 1
- II Title — 6
- III Structure — 9
- IV Author — 11

Chapter Two: Abasement — 14

- I Practice in Christianity as Christology — 14
- II The Overarching Structure of Abasement — 16
- III Marks of Abasement (1): Poverty — 24
- IV Marks of Abasement (2): Marginality — 26
- V Marks of Abasement (3): Offense — 32
- VI Excursus: A Brief Survey of Inoffensive Christologies — 40
- VII Marks of Abasement (4): Persecuted — 48

Chapter Three: Contemporaneity — 52

- I Introduction: Why? — 52
- II Contemporaneity: A Definition — 53
- III The Logic of Contemporaneity: Or, Anti-Climacus's Philosophy of History — 54
- IV Anti-Climacus's Counter-Philosophy of History — 69
- V Inverse Dialectic — 77
- VI The World is the Same: History, Contemporaneity, Salvation — 82

Chapter Four: Imitation — 85

- I Imitatio Christi: A Brief History — 86
- II Imitation, Contemporaneity, & the Double Danger — 90
- III A Youth — 97
- IV Imitation/Admiration — 103
- V The Christian as Criminal — 109

VIII — Contents

Chapter Five: Kierkegaard and Womanist Theology — 111

- I Introduction — 111
- II Rejecting the Cross: Delores S. Williams — 113
- III The Cross as Potentially Liberative: JoAnne Marie Terrell — 116
- IV M. Shawn Copeland: The Cross & Enslaved Agency — 120
- V Conclusion — 126

Conclusion — 128

Bibliography — 140

Index — 146