

Contents

Opening of the Symposium Professor Shin-ichi Hirano, Professor Saburi Haruo, Professor Masanori Kawano	1
--	---

Chapter 1

Provisional Measures and Prohibitory Injunctions

Masanori Kawano Provisional Measures for Prohibition of Actions – New Tendencies in Japan	7
Neil H. Andrews Accelerated Justice: Protective, Interim and Summary Procedures in English Law	18
Marco de Cristofaro Anti-suit Injunctions as a Tool for Governing Private Litigation	58
Laura Ervo Some Comments on Civil Provisional Measures to Prohibit Specific Actions According to Finnish Law	69
Discussion	81

Chapter 2

International Class Actions

Peter L. Murray Class Actions in a Global Economy	95
Rolf Stürner International Class Actions from a German Point of View	107
Laura Ervo Class Actions – Scandinavian Novelty	118
Discussion	127

Chapter 3

Taking Evidence Abroad

Nicolò Trocker

Transnational Litigation, Access to Evidence and U.S. Discovery: Understanding American ‘Exceptionalism’	145
---	-----

Peter L. Murray

Taking Evidence Abroad – Understanding American Exceptionalism	200
--	-----

Miklós Kengyel

Taking Evidence Abroad – Hungarian Aspects	214
--	-----

Laura Ervo

Taking Evidence Abroad According to Finnish Law	220
---	-----

Discussion	225
----------------------	-----

Chapter 4

Preclusive Effects of Foreign Judgments

Rolf Stürner

Preclusive Effects of Foreign Judgments – The European Tradition . .	239
--	-----

Laura Ervo

Preclusive Effects of Foreign Judgments According to Finnish Law . .	256
--	-----

Discussion	262
----------------------	-----

Speakers’ Profile	275
-----------------------------	-----