

Table of Contents

---

List of Abbreviations	ix
Introduction	1
I. Discourses as a Constructive Response to Scriptural Misuse	2
A. The Blocked Path of the Historical Critical Method	3
B. The Blocked Path of "Orthodoxy" and the Danish State Church	7
C. Kierkegaard's Constructive Response: Upbuilding Discourses	9
II. Purpose and Structure of the Book	16
Chapter One: From Ordinary to Actual Reading: Metaphor and Tropology in Kierkegaard's Upbuilding Scriptural Hermeneutic	29
I. Introduction	29
II. Actual Reading and Scriptural Language as Metaphor	30
A. Illustrating the Movement from "Ordinary" to "Actual" Reading	33
B. Implications	36
III. Kierkegaard and Ricoeur: Metaphor and the Surplus of Meaning	37
IV. Kierkegaard and de Lubac: Spiritual Reading and Tropology	41
A. De Lubac and Tropological Reading	42
B. Kierkegaard as Modern Tropologist	44
V. Conclusion	53
Chapter Two: Hermeneutical Assumptions and Techniques of the Discourses	55
I. Introduction	55

II. Hermeneutical Assumption 1: Meaning is Generated at the Level of the Whole Canonical Context Rather than at the Level of the Immediate Context	56
A. Technique 1: The Development of an Upbuilding Argument Arises from the Creation of a Dialogue between Two Scriptural Texts from Different Contexts	57
B. Technique 2: Word Association: Interpreting a Particular Word through the Use of the Same Word in Another Passage	60
III. Hermeneutical Assumption 2: Meaning Occurs at the Level of the Word or Phrase Rather than at the Level of the Sentence or Paragraph	60
A. Technique 1: Technical Phrases which Carry an Established Meaning	62
B. Technique 2: A Scriptural Image, Phrase, or Statement is Used to Drive the Logic of the Discourse	63
C. Technique 3: Grammar of the Phrase is more Important than the Immediate Context for Generating an Upbuilding Meaning	64
D. Technique 4: Switching the Referent of a Phrase to Multiply the Meaning of the Phrase	66
IV. Hermeneutical Assumption 3: Universalizing the Text Makes the Reader Contemporary with the Subject Matter	67
A. Technique 1: Universalizing a Phrase Originally Given in a Particular Context to Make It a Norm for Salvation	68
B. Technique 2: Everything Written by an Apostle or Spoken by Jesus Can be Appropriated by the Individual for Upbuilding	69
V. Hermeneutical Assumption 4: Changing the Text Enables Readers to Envision Appropriation	70
A. Technique 1: Mistranslation and Incorrect Citations	71
B. Technique 2: Conflating or Recreating Biblical Narrative for a Contemporary Audience	73
VI. Hermeneutical Assumption 5: Spiritualizing a Narrative Detail Provides Deeper Meaning for Contemporary Readers	74
A. Technique 1: Reinterpreting a Narrative Detail to Communicate a Spiritual Truth	75
VII. Techniques that Add to the Text for Emphasis	78
A. Technique 1: Adding an Argument from Silence	78
B. Technique 2: Disagreeing with a Scriptural Statement for Further Emphasis	79
C. Technique 3: Changing, Intensifying or Explaining a Scriptural Command by Focusing on the Purpose of the Command	80

VIII. Conclusion	80
Chapter Three: Development of Rhetoric and Use of Scripture in Upbuilding and Christian Discourses	83
I. Introduction	83
II. Rhetoric and Scripture in the Eighteen Upbuilding Discourses	85
A. Introduction	85
B. Structure and Development of the Argument	86
C. Universal Upbuilding Meaning	90
D. Conclusion	94
III. Rhetoric and Scripture in the Christian Discourses	94
A. Introduction	94
B. "The Gospel of Sufferings"	95
C. "The Cares of the Pagans"	101
D. "States of Mind in the Strife of Suffering"	105
E. "Thoughts That Wound from Behind—For Upbuilding"	110
F. "Discourses at the Communion on Fridays"	115
IV. Conclusion and Assessment	119
Chapter Four: Assessing the Relationship Between Upbuilding and Christian Discourses	125
I. Introduction	125
II. Distinctive Feature 1: Shifts in Scriptural Content	126
A. Areas of Change in Scriptural Content	128
B. Continuity in Scriptural Use: Doctrinal Principle Texts	134
C. Conclusions about Continuity and Change in Scriptural Content	141
III. Distinctive Feature 2: Change in Presentation of Scriptural Authority	143
A. Inherent Authority in the Upbuilding Discourses	144
B. Presented Authority in the Christian Discourses	146
IV. Conclusions about the Relationship between Discourses	158
Conclusion	161
I. Achievements and Remaining Questions	161
II. Reading the Discourses as Situational Religious Communication	164
A. The Theory of Stages and Its Problems	164
B. Discourses as Situational Religious Communication	167
C. Implications	171
III. Kierkegaard as Tropologist: His Hermeneutic in the Present Age	172
A. Resolving the Tensions in Authority: Metaphorical Reading in the Service of Christian Concepts	173

B. Kierkegaard as Tropologist: Articulating Criteria of Interpretive Adequacy for Regulating Interpretation	177
Bibliography	185
Index	195