

Contents

Foreword
Johannes Beermann	11
I: Money and currency in the euro area	15
Trust in fiat money
Antti Heinonen	17
The euro: Global currency model and masterpiece of banknote technology
Wolfram Seidemann	56
The role of cash in the economy and society
Otmar Issing	64
Statutory limitations on cash payments considered in the light of relevant aspects of constitutional and European Union law
Hans-Jürgen Papier	76
The role of euro banknotes as legal tender
Yves Mersch	90
The reform of fiscal governance in the euro area
Clemens Fuest	98
The need for financial equalisation in the euro area and greater integration in the EU
Hans Eichel	110

From the East German mark to the euro: Cash brings people together Theodor Waigel	119
The Monetary Union of 1990 Richard Schröder	130
The real side of the “integration coin”: Germany’s participation in the global economy as a trading nation Dalia Marin	149
Three official ties to the euro under one roof Oldřich Dědek	164
II: Cash cycle in Germany and other G20 countries	181
The path money takes: Fundamentals, developments and the prospects for cash in Germany Johannes Beermann	183
The path money takes outside the euro area	213
Contribution by the Banco Central de la República Argentina.....	217
Contribution by the Reserve Bank of Australia Rochelle Guttman	224
Contribution by the Banco Central do Brasil Ricardo Danziger	240
Contribution by the Reserve Bank of India	244

Contribution by Bank Indonesia David Sipahutar	247
Contribution by the Bank of Japan Hiroyuki Kanno	253
Contribution by the Banco de México Antonio Noriega	265
Contribution by the South African Reserve Bank Pearl Kgalegi	268
Contribution by the Bank of England Nick Butt and Lydia Reid	271
Contribution by the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco Roger Replogle	283
III: Perspectives for cash	293
Thousand years of paper currency, and what comes next Barry Eichengreen	295
Homo aquisitor: Observations on the contemporary individual as a holder of purchasing power Peter Sloterdijk	311
Cash usage in Switzerland: Between stability and change Fritz Zurbrugg	330
Often imitated, never duplicated: The enduring role of U.S. currency Mark Gould	350

Cash, Covid and the prospects for a Canadian digital dollar Walter Engert and Kim Huynh	366
Policy implications of digital currency as part of the monetary base Fan Yifei	401
The digital euro from a geopolitical perspective: Will Europe lag behind? Philipp Sandner and Jonas Gross	411
Central bank digital currency: The quest for minimally invasive technology Raphael Auer and Rainer Böhme	440
Pandemic money puzzles Viviana A. Zelizer	466
The Soul and the Sign Gaspard Koenig	485
In dubio pro euro note: On the psychological value of cash Julia Pitters	497
IV: Final remarks	511
In lieu of concluding remarks: Some thoughts on the future of cash Johannes Beermann	513
Authors	519