

Table of Contents

Acknowledgments	VII
-----------------------	-----

Chapter 1: Introduction	1
-------------------------------	---

1.1 Joy in Luke-Acts and Emotions (and the Like) in New Testament Studies	4
--	---

1.1.1 Studies of Joy in Luke and/or Acts	5
--	---

1.1.2 Studies of Emotions in the New Testament	15
--	----

1.2 Joining the Conversation: Methodological Approach and Working Assumptions	20
--	----

1.2.1 What Is Joy? Or Rather, What Is Joy-according-to-Luke?	24
--	----

1.2.2 Human Emotions and Their (Re)formation	26
--	----

1.2.3 How to Find Joy (in a Narrative): Identifying Key Terms and Avoiding the “Danger of the Concordance”	36
--	----

1.3 Preview of Chapters	38
--------------------------------------	----

Chapter 2: Awaiting Joyous Circumstances and Welcoming Them with Joy: Joy in the Lukan Infancy Narrative	43
--	----

2.1 Zechariah and Other Elderly Characters: Awaiting Joyous Circumstances	47
--	----

2.1.1 Framing Remarks: The Representative Function of the Infancy Narrative’s Older Adults	48
--	----

2.1.2 Divine Initiative: Waiting on God to Bring about Joyous Circumstances	52
---	----

2.1.3 Faith-Full Obedience as a Joy-Facilitating Response to/while Waiting	55
--	----

2.1.4 Israel’s Scriptures and the Rationale for, Shape of, and Hope that Motivates Faithfulness-while-Waiting in the Lukan Infancy Narrative	57
--	----

2.1.5 Conclusion: Faithfulness while Awaiting Divinely Orchestrated Joyous Circumstances	59
2.2 The Case of Zechariah: Receiving Joyous Circumstances with Joy	60
2.2.1 Framing Remarks: Silence, Speech, and Zechariah's Joy(lessness)	62
2.2.1.1 Methodological Aside: Discerning Unnamed Emotions (or the Palpable Absence of a Given Emotion) in Biblical Narratives	65
2.2.1.2 Speech(lessness) and Joy(lessness) in Luke 1:11–22.....	67
2.2.1.3 Zechariah's (Implicitly) Joyful Speech (Luke 1:64, 67–79) ...	75
2.2.2 Zechariah's Silence: Failed Faith and Thwarted Joy.....	81
2.2.2.1 Zechariah and Abraham: "How Will I Know?"	81
2.2.2.2 Zechariah, Abraham, and Joy-according-to-Luke.....	84
2.2.3 Zechariah's Joy: Divine Initiative, Human Obedience, Israel's Scriptures, and the Faith(fulness) Needed to Enter into Joy	88
2.2.3.1 Divine Initiative and Joyous Circumstances	89
a) Joy-Conducive Faith in View of What God Has Already Done	90
b) Divine Healing and Zechariah's Restored Emotional-Physical Ability to Rejoice	93
2.2.3.2 Faith-Full Obedience and Joy.....	95
2.2.3.3 The Story of Scripture and Zechariah's Jubilant (Re)narration of Recent Experience	98
a) A Possible Objection and Some Interdisciplinary Considerations (Briefly)	100
b) Scriptural Allusions and the Narratively Structured Emotional Intelligibility of Zechariah's Experience.....	107
2.2.4 Conclusion: Zechariah's Emotional Transformation and Joy-according-to-Luke	115
2.3 Zechariah and Mary: Joy-Related Foils and the Narrative Unfolding of Joy-according-to-Luke	116
2.3.1 Framing Remarks: Zechariah, Mary, and Joy-according-to-Luke	118
2.3.2 Zechariah, Mary, and Faithful Waiting (or Lack Thereof?)	120
2.3.3 Zechariah, Mary, and the Timing of Rejoicing: Faith(fulness)/Trust and Delayed Joy over the Promise of Joyous Circumstances	123
2.3.3.1 Mary and the Expectation of Rejoicing	125
2.3.3.2 Zechariah and Mary: Similarities and a Difference in Their Exchanges with Gabriel	138
2.3.3.3 Zechariah's and Mary's Delay in Joy: Doubt versus Faith-Filled Disorientation	140

2.3.4 Zechariah and Mary: From Doubt/Disorientation to Jubilant Praise	143
2.3.4.1 Zechariah and Mary: Divine Initiative and Joyous Circumstances	144
2.3.4.2 Zechariah and Mary: Obedience and Faith(fulness)/Trust	149
2.3.4.3 Zechariah and Mary: Israel's Scriptures and the Emotional Intelligibility of Joy-Conducive Divine Intervention	153
a) Narrative Setting	154
b) Structure and Allusive Content of the Magnificat	160
2.4 Conclusion: What Leads to Joy in the Lukan Infancy Narrative?	169
 Chapter 3: Joy in Discipleship: Rejoicing in Jesus's Teaching and Ministry	173
3.1 Structure and Working Assumptions	174
3.2 Summary of Chapter Contents and Overview of Key Questions	176
3.3 Joy and Trials, Joy and Triumph: Rightly Oriented Hope and Perseverance as Conditions for Joy-according-to-Luke	181
3.3.1 Joy and Persecution: The Warrant for Rejoicing in the Lukan Beatitudes (Luke 6:22–23)	182
3.3.2 Joy and Perseverance: Rootless Joy in the Parable of the Sower (Esp. Luke 8:13, 15)	194
3.3.3 Joy and Trials Elsewhere in Luke-Acts: Brief Observations	202
3.3.4 Joy and Triumph: Jesus (Re)orients Hope by Teaching and Example (Luke 10:17–24)	205
3.3.5 Conclusion: Hope and Joy-according-to-Luke in Luke 6–10	214
3.4 Joy over Others' Experiences of Restoration: Conditions for Recognizing Joy-Conducive Circumstances in Someone Else's Salvation (Luke 13:10–17; 15:1–32)	217
3.4.1 Joy and the Sabbath Healing of a "Daughter of Abraham" (Luke 13:10–17)	220
3.4.1.1 (Un)timeliness and Scripture: Sabbath Setting	222
3.4.1.2 (Un)timeliness and Scripture: Salvation-Historical Setting ..	225
3.4.1.3 (Un)timeliness and Scripture: Christological Implications ...	228
3.4.1.4 (Un)timeliness and Scripture: Implications of the Bent-Over Woman's Status as "Daughter of Abraham"	229

3.4.1.5 (Un)timeliness Reconsidered: Belated Movement toward Joy-over-Another's-Salvation?	231
3.4.2 Joy and the Lost-and-Found (Luke 15:1–32)	232
3.4.2.1 Joy in Luke 15: Distribution of Joy Terms and Narrative Frame	233
3.4.2.2 Joy in Luke 15: Two Paradigmatic Parables and Their Theological Implications.....	235
3.4.2.3 Joy in Luke 15: Two Sons and a Joyful Father	237
a) The Father's Immediate Emotional Reaction to the Younger Son's Return: Compassionate Love, Restorative Recognition, and Rejoicing over Another's Restoration	241
b) The Father-Son Dialogue in Luke 15:28–32: Addressing Objections and Clarifying the “Necessary” Catalyst for Joy	245
α) Possessive Pronouns and Terms of Familial Relation in Luke 15:11–24	246
β) Why Is the Elder Brother Angry (and Not Joyful) in Luke 15:25–30 (esp. 15:28–30)?	248
γ) How Does the Father Foster Emotional Reformation in Luke 15:31–32?.....	253
3.4.2.4 Joy in Luke 15: Conditions for Joy over the Lost-and-Found.....	257
3.4.2.5 Joy and the Lost-and-Found Elsewhere in Luke-Acts: Brief Observations	261
3.4.3 Conclusion: Joy over Others' Restoration in Luke 13–15	264
3.5 Joy and Wealth in the Travel Narrative: The Danger of Wrongful Rejoicing and Conditions for (Appropriate) Joy-according-to-Luke in the Context of Economic Prosperity	265
3.5.1 Failed Enjoyment: The Parable of the Rich Fool (Luke 12:16–21).....	268
3.5.1.1 The Parable of the Rich Fool: Wealth and a Total Failure in Enjoyment.....	268
3.5.1.2 The Parable of the Rich Fool and Its Preceding Narrative Context	270
3.5.1.3 The Parable of the Rich Fool and Joy-according-to-Luke: Joy(lessness) and (a Lack of) Eschatologically Oriented, Theologically Warranted Hope	272
3.5.1.4 The Parable of the Rich Fool and the Intensification that Follows	279

3.5.1.5 Conclusion: The Rich Fool and a Total Failure in Enjoyment.....	282
3.5.2 Fleeting Enjoyment: Lazarus and the Rich Man (Luke 16:19–31)....	284
3.5.2.1 Lazarus’s Rich Neighbor and the Temporary Experience of Enjoyment.....	284
3.5.2.2 Lazarus and His Rich Neighbor in Narrative Context: The Chasm and Father Abraham	287
3.5.2.3 Lazarus, His Rich Neighbor, and Joy-according-to-Luke: Three Points of Corroboration and Clarification Relative to the Rich Fool in Luke 12.....	290
3.5.2.4 Conclusion: Lazarus’s Rich Neighbor and Later Rich Men in Luke’s Gospel.....	294
3.5.3 Declining Costly Joy: The Account of the Rich Ruler (Luke 18:18–30).....	295
3.5.3.1 The (Rich) Ruler’s Joylessness: An Overview and Comparison with Rich Men in Earlier Joy-Related Passages.....	296
3.5.3.2 The Rich Ruler’s Joylessness: Analysis and Evaluation	300
3.5.4 Joy that Opens Hands: Zacchaeus, “Son of Abraham” (Luke 19:1–10).....	302
3.5.4.1 Zacchaeus’s Initial Characterization and Jubilation.....	304
3.5.4.2 Joy and Open Hands: Corroboration and Complication of the Pattern Sketched thus Far	306
3.5.4.3 A Rich Man Rejoices Rightly: Conditions – but Not a Formula – for Joy.....	312
3.6 Conclusion: Synthetic Reflections on Joy in the Body of Luke’s Gospel	315

Chapter 4: Joy-according-to-Luke and the Way to the Cross (Luke 19:28–22:49)..... 319

4.1 The Jubilation of the “Multitude of Disciples”: Appropriate but Too-Limited Joy over the Triumphal Entry (Luke 19:28–48).....	321
4.1.1 Good as Far as It Goes: Joy as an Appropriate Response to Jesus’s Arrival at Jerusalem	322
4.1.1.1 Intratextual Echoes: The Role of Receptivity to Jesus’s Initiative in Facilitating Joy-according-to-Luke	323
4.1.1.2 Intertextual Echoes: The Role of Scripturally Informed, Christologically and Eschatologically Oriented Hope in Facilitating Appropriate Joy-according-to-Luke.....	324

4.1.1.3 Summary: Conditions that Facilitate the Narratively Affirmed Joy of the Triumphal Entry	327
4.1.2 A Too-Limited Joy: Ill-Foreboding Shortcomings in the Joy over the Triumphal Entry	328
4.1.2.1 Intratextual Connections: The Twofold Deficiency of the Joy that Attends the Triumphal Entry	331
4.1.2.2 Intertextual Echoes: The Deficiency in the Joy of the Triumphal Entry with Respect to Who Rejoices	339
4.1.2.3 Summary: The Inadequacies in the Joy of Luke 19:37 and the Joylessness of 19:41–46	343
4.1.3 Conclusion: The Appropriate but Too-Limited Joy that Attends the Triumphal Entry	344
4.2 The Jubilation of Jesus's Enemies: Sinister Joy in Response to Judas's Offer of Betrayal	346
4.2.1 Joy in Luke 22:5 and (the Wrong Sort of) Responsiveness toward Jesus	347
4.2.2 Joy in Luke 22:5 and (Perverse) Hope	349
4.2.3 Joy in Luke 22:5 and Attitudes toward Money, Especially in the Context of a Larger Response to Jesus	351
4.2.4 Conclusion: The Joy in Luke 22:5 and the Moral Charge of Joy and What Leads to Joy in Luke-Acts	352
4.3 The Jubilation of Herod: Superficial Hope and Superficial Rejoicing over Seeing Jesus	353
4.4 Conclusion: Joy on the Way to the Cross and the Question of What Facilitates Joy-according-to-Luke	361
 Chapter 5: Awaiting and Receiving Joy, Again (and Again): Joy on Easter, Joy after the Ascension, and the Conditions for Joy-according-to-Luke (Luke 23:50–24:53; Acts 1–2:41)
5.1 A Joyless Starting Point: Initial Responses to Jesus's Death	366
5.2 (Unwittingly) Waiting for Easter Joy: Receptivity to Jesus, Routine Faithfulness, and Positioning for Joy (Luke 23:49–24:1)	369
5.3 Receiving Joyous Circumstances with Joy: The Journey into Easter Joy (Luke 24)	375

5.3.1 Lack of Anticipatory Joy (Vorfreude): The Emotional Effects of Epistemic Limitations?.....	376
5.3.1.1 Expectation of (Anticipatory) Rejoicing.....	377
5.3.1.2 Pre-Easter Cognitive (and Consequent Emotional?) Limitations.....	378
a) Lukan Redaction of Mark and Jesus's Followers' Epistemic Limitations.....	378
b) Emotional Implications of Epistemic Limitations?	384
5.3.1.3 Why these Cognitive-Emotional Limitations? Newness, Hiddenness, and Absent or Delayed Joy in the Gospel According to Luke	388
a) Categorical Newness as an Explanation for the Disciples' Lack of Anticipatory Joy?.....	388
b) The Insufficiency of "Newness" to Account for the Disciples' Lack of (Anticipatory) Joy	391
c) The Motif of Hiddenness and the Disciples' Lack of Joy Prior to and Immediately Following Jesus's Resurrection	393
α) Hiddenness at the Triumphal Entry	395
β) Hiddenness on Easter	398
5.3.2 Moving into Easter Joy: Joy-Conducive Divine Initiative and the Conditions that Enable a Joyful Response to It.....	400
5.3.2.1 Making Easter Joy a Possibility: Divine Action that Brings about the Circumstances Needed for (Easter) Joy	402
5.3.2.2 Angelic (and Human) Testimony Fosters Openness to the Conditions that Lead to Joy on Easter	405
a) Angelic Witness and the Women's Joy(lessness?) at the Tomb	406
α) Objection and Response: Narrative Analysis, Lukan Redaction, and the Women's Response to Angelic Witness at the Tomb.....	407
β) The Narrative Effects of Joy's Absence in Luke 24:1–12	412
b) Angelic Witness (and Its Echoes) Prodding Jesus's Followers toward the Conditions for Joy on Easter Sunday.....	413
5.3.2.3 The Risen Lord Leads His Followers into Joy on Easter Sunday	417
a) Difficulties in Analyzing and Articulating the Conditions for Joy on Easter Sunday	420
b) Roadblocks to Easter Joy on Easter: Absent or "Slow" Faith and Shortsighted Hope.....	423

α) Joylessness and Deficiencies in Faith(fulness)/Trust (Especially in the Scriptures).....	423
β) Dramatic Irony and Deficiencies in the Disciples' Hope.....	426
c) Revelation and Jubilation on Easter Sunday	428
α) The Need for Revelation to Facilitate Joy-according- to-Luke on Easter Sunday.....	429
β) Revelatory Hermeneutical Instruction and Easter Joy: Israel's Scriptures, Divine Necessity, and the Shape of Messiahship.....	431
γ) Joy and the Recognition of Jesus as Himself, Bodily Present (for Now) in the Community of His Followers	436
δ) "While They Were Disbelieving from Joy"	440
5.3.3 Joy on Easter Sunday and Joy-according-to-Luke in Other Contexts	446
5.4 Joy after the Ascension	450
5.4.1 Why Do Jesus's Followers Rejoice after He Departs? (Luke 24:49–53; cf. Acts 1:1–12).....	451
5.4.2 Faithfulness while Waiting in Easter Joy (Luke 24:49–53; Acts 1)...	455
5.4.3 Witness to Jesus's Joy: Joy-Related Exegetical Insights under the Influence of the Spirit (Acts 2:1–41)	459
5.5 Conclusion: Easter and Post-Ascension Joy	464
 Chapter 6: Conclusion: The Conditions that Lead to Joy- according-to-Luke.....	467
6.1 Taking Stock: What Leads to (Appropriate) Joy?	467
6.2 Suggestions for Further Research	474
6.2.1 Development-within-Continuity: The Conditions for Joy-according- to-Acts	474
6.2.2 Luke-Acts.....	477
6.2.3 Methodological Matters.....	478
6.2.4 New Testament Theology and Ethics	480
6.3 Lukan Joy: A Pastoral Postscript	482

Appendix A: Narrative Silence and Joy(lessness) in Later Acts.....	493
Three Objections and Responses: The Possible Presence of Joy in Acts 17–28	494
Objection 1: Is Joy Present through the Letter Greeting in Acts 23:26?	494
Objection 2: Is Joy Implied by Other Emotionally Charged Terms in Acts 17–28?	495
Objection 3: Is Joy Conveyed Narratively, without the Relevant Emotion Terms, in Acts 17–28?.....	496
Interpreting Absence: A Significant Silence about Joy in Acts 17–28?	498
Noticing Narrative Parallels in Luke-Acts: Jesus, Peter, and Paul	499
An Inconclusive Conclusion: Inferences about the (Joyless) End of Acts	500
 Appendix B: Lists of Verses in Luke-Acts with Joy Terms.....	505
 Bibliography.....	507
Sources.....	519
Modern Authors	529
Subjects.....	531
Index of Greek Terms.....	535