

111 Places

- 1___ Adrian Balboa's Grave
A real grave for a fictional character | 10
- 2___ Albert Einstein's Pipe
You've seen it in photos, now see it in person | 12
- 3___ America's Best Bathroom
It's just outside Philadelphia, and it's alive | 14
- 4___ Assembly
The swankiest rooftop in town | 16
- 5___ Baleroy Mansion
Maybe a little too haunted | 18
- 6___ Barnes Foundation
Black culture among the impressionists | 20
- 7___ Bartram's Garden
Colonial America's first garden | 22
- 8___ Batalá Philly
Philly's most inclusive musical act | 24
- 9___ BioPond
A shockingly secluded secret garden | 26
- 10___ Black Vulture Gallery
Art for your skin, art for your walls | 28
- 11___ BOK
Vintage cheese, anyone? | 30
- 12___ Buist Sophora
A beloved tree that defies destruction | 32
- 13___ Burlesque Academy
Get your Gypsy Rose Lee on | 34
- 14___ Carmen's
Where Obama went for a cheesesteak | 36
- 15___ Cave of Kelpius
Where America's first mystic cult awaited Doomsday | 38
- 16___ Charles Dickens' Desk
Not his only, but his last | 40
- 17___ Cherry Street Pier
An abandoned space turned community inspiration | 42
- 18___ Cherry Street Tavern
Is that a urinal trough along the bar? | 44

- 19___ Cira Green
A complete park in the sky | 46
- 20___ Circadium School of Contemporary Circus
The first state-accredited program for circus arts | 48
- 21___ The Clay Studio
Learn, create, and “clay it forward” | 50
- 22___ The Colored Girls Museum
A curated collection in a private home | 52
- 23___ Congress Hall
Move over, Independence Hall | 54
- 24___ Curtis Institute
Free education and free concerts | 56
- 25___ DeLong Building
A stunning model of urban fire history | 58
- 26___ Dirty Franks
Eye-popping dive with serious heart | 60
- 27___ Discovery Center
From forgotten reservoir to city treasure | 62
- 28___ Dream Garden
A masterpiece nearly lost | 64
- 29___ Earliest US Serial Killer
The devil in the white city met his end in Philadelphia | 66
- 30___ East Market
A full community in a single block | 68
- 31___ Edgar Allan Poe’s House
Three stories and one creepy basement | 70
- 32___ Eiffel Tower of Philly
It’s a milk bottle, but close enough | 72
- 33___ Emmy the Mannequin
A local celeb hawking inside jokes | 74
- 34___ Eternal Performance
Some seats come with an extra show | 76
- 35___ Fairmount Groot
An enduring fixture in an evolving garden | 78
- 36___ Fairmount Water Works
A hands-on learning center in a historic location | 80
- 37___ FDR Skate Park
Where community and government agree | 82
- 38___ First Antislavery Protest
An early petition against hypocrisy and injustice | 84

- 39___ First Person Arts
Where Philadelphians take center stage | 86
- 40___ Fidler Square Farmers Market
A delicious secret in a picturesque square | 88
- 41___ Fletcher Street Urban Riding Club
Philly's urban Black cowboys | 90
- 42___ Four Seasons Total Landscaping
A political disaster and a business boon | 92
- 43___ George Washington's Apron
For ceremony, not for kitchen messes | 94
- 44___ Germantown White House
America's oldest surviving presidential residence | 96
- 45___ Giant Otters
Philadelphia's cutest "first" | 98
- 46___ Giant Wood Slide
Big fun for the little ones | 100
- 47___ Graffiti Pier
Philly's most photographed illegal art | 102
- 48___ The Gross Clinic
So gross it couldn't be displayed | 104
- 49___ Halloween
Find the store, find a treasure | 106
- 50___ Hamilton Garden
A rooftop within a rooftop | 108
- 51___ Insectarium
The only cockroach kitchen you'd pay to see | 110
- 52___ Irish Memorial
A waterfront homage to those who came and went | 112
- 53___ Jazz Attack
Lindy Hop or Philly Bop, it's your call | 114
- 54___ Jim Loewer Glass
Blow your own masterpiece | 116
- 55___ John E. Freyer Marker
A small testament to a monumental shift | 118
- 56___ King's Highway Bridge
Built for Penn, used by Washington | 120
- 57___ LGBT Community Center
A local resource of national proportion | 122
- 58___ Lydia Darrah School
Moderne building honoring a Revolutionary spy | 124

- 59___ Magic Gardens
There's a secret among the murals | 126
- 60___ Maillardet's Automaton
The future, according to the past | 128
- 61___ Manayunk Canal Towpath
Recreation among the remnants of industry | 130
- 62___ Mask and Wig Clubhouse
A long tradition of musical-comedy wit and whimsy | 132
- 63___ Mount Moriah Cemetery
Is Betsy Ross still in this unowned cemetery? | 134
- 64___ Mummery Museum
Your chance to be a Mummer, if only for a moment | 136
- 65___ Neon Museum
Representing the "Workshop of the World" | 138
- 66___ Octavius V. Catto Memorial
Enormous impact from a short life | 140
- 67___ Ohio State House
The last state house from the first World's Fair | 142
- 68___ Old St. Joseph's Church
A hidden church, then and now | 144
- 69___ Oneida Debate
Two revolutions in one | 146
- 70___ Original Pumpkin Spice
Philly was into pumpkin spice before it was basic | 148
- 71___ Painted Bride
Incubating a city's underserved communities | 150
- 72___ Patti LaBelle Way
A permanent home for a Philly legend | 152
- 73___ Philadelphia Independents
Philly-centric, Philly-made, Philly-proud | 154
- 74___ Philadelphia Stars Memorial Park
A small tribute to a major contribution | 156
- 75___ Prison Synagogue
The first in the nation | 158
- 76___ Pulse Fountain
The train timetable you didn't know existed | 160
- 77___ Quince Street
The most charming, among alleys | 162
- 78___ Rail Park
It's even greener than you think | 164

- 79___ Random Tea Room
Shopping, sipping, and co-working in serenity | 166
- 80___ Rittenhouse Chess
Make your move, make a friend | 168
- 81___ River Hammocks
Beach vibes at the riverfront | 170
- 82___ The Rosenbach
A literary wonderland | 172
- 83___ The Rotunda
A literal arts sanctuary | 174
- 84___ Sedgley Woods Disc Golf
An older course for a newer sport | 176
- 85___ Sesame Place
The country's original Sesame Street theme park | 178
- 86___ Shrek Box
Leave an ogre, take an ogre | 180
- 87___ Sidewalk Pretzel
A beloved symbol of the city | 182
- 88___ Singh Center
An architectural jewel | 184
- 89___ Sister Cities Park
Where Philly is the center of everything | 186
- 90___ Skew Arch Bridge
Better below than above | 188
- 91___ Southeast Asian Market
An enormous market you've somehow missed | 190
- 92___ St. Albans Place
From Devil's Pocket to romantic courtyard | 192
- 93___ St. John Neumann's Body
A holy body permanently on display | 194
- 94___ Star Doors
Philly's most coveted glass | 196
- 95___ Surgical Amphitheater
You've seen them on TV, now see one in person | 198
- 96___ Taller Puertorriqueño
The cultural heart of El Barrio | 200
- 97___ Tea for Few at Stenton
The hot drink wasn't for everyone in early Philly | 202
- 98___ Thaddeus Kosciuszko National Memorial
Smallest national park site, big dose of history | 204

- 99___ Thirsty Dice
Eat, drink, play, and propose? | 206
- 100___ Thunderbird Salvage
Bargaining for local treasures | 208
- 101___ Tomb of Empress Ana María
Final resting place of Mexico's first empress | 210
- 102___ Urban Fishing
Country fun in the city | 212
- 103___ W Hotel WET Deck Bar
Have a drink with a couple of legends | 214
- 104___ Wagner Free Institute
Free science lessons in a Victorian museum | 216
- 105___ West Laurel Hill
Where America's best came to rest | 218
- 106___ Whispering Benches
Share your secrets in public | 220
- 107___ Wildlife Refuge
Go birds! | 222
- 108___ William & Letitia Still House
Harriet Tubman stood here – and slept here, too | 224
- 109___ Wonderspaces
A nearly indefinable space | 226
- 110___ Wood Street Steps
Step into the past and toward Utopia | 228
- 111___ World Café Live
An independent stage for everyone | 230